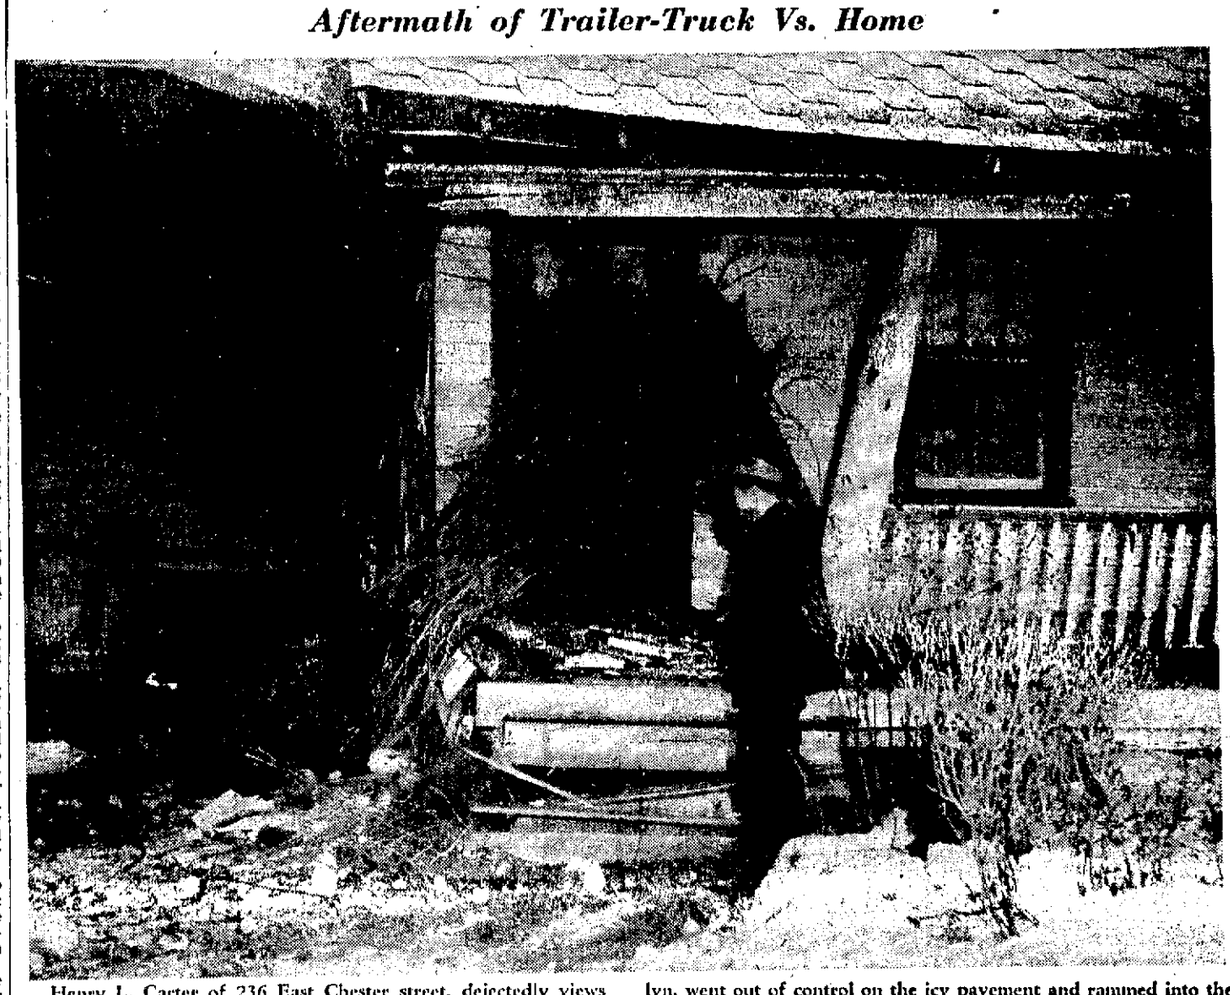
10-Ton Truck Smashes Into House on By-Pass

Aftermath of Trailer-Truck Vs. Home



Henry L. Carter of 236 East Chester street, dejectedly views the remains of his house this morning after a 10-ton trailer-truck owned by the Big Four Transportation Co., 611 Broadway, Brooklyn, and operated by Jack Dugan, 40, of 1773 Union street, Brooklyn, went out of control on the icy pavement and rammed into the residence with a glancing blow. Carter, who was alone in the house at the time, said he considered his dwelling a total loss. (Ken Roosa Photo)

Driver Lost Control on Icy Road

Carter House Knocked One Foot Off Its Foundation Early This Morning

Driver Is Injured

Brooklyn Operator Is Treated for Abrasion of Scalp

A 10-ton tractor-trailer truck plunged down the East Chester street hill after its driver had lost control on the icy pavement, jumped the snowbank on the left side, and struck and damaged the home of Henry L. Carter at 236 East Chester street at about 3:15 a. m. today, the police reported.

The truck driver was thrown against the windshield, breaking it. He was taken to Kingston Hospital in a Connor's Ambulance, where he was treated for an abrasion of the scalp by a resident physician and released. He told hospital authorities his name is Jack Dugan, 40 years old, of 1733 Union street, Brooklyn, although local police who investigated the accident reported his name as Jack Dubin of the same address.

Dugan was driving south on East Chester street, towards Kingston, and when he reached the point about opposite to Schulze's Grocery, he lost control of the truck. Tire tracks show that the truck crossed the road, mounted a snow bank on the left side, and continued on to Carter's house, which is located opposite the intersection of East Chester street and Sylvester street.

House Is Off Foundation

The house, a one-story and attic frame dwelling, was knocked about one foot off its foundation, and the concrete block foundation itself was loosened and knocked out of line. At the point where the truck struck the house, several of the concrete blocks were knocked completely loose and landed in the cellar.

Henry Carter was alone in the house at the time of the accident. He said this morning that he had just gotten out of bed and was in the bathroom when he heard a rumble followed by a jarring crash. The entire floor moved under him, and he said he wasn't sure just what happened.

It was necessary for Carter to pry open the back door in order to get out of the house. eManwhile a neighbor had called Connor's ambulance to take the injured driver to the hospital and also notified police.

The truck was a White tractor-trailer combination owned by the Big Four Transportation Company, Inc., 611 Broadway, Brooklyn, and leased by the Well-Built Stove Company of Maspeth, L. I. Carter said that the driver told him the truck was empty.

Lights Go Out

With the crash, lights in the area went out, as the truck had taken down a line of wire. Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation was notified and sent a crew to the scene.

Carter said this morning that he considered the house a total loss. The foundation is damaged from the ground up, the siding of the house was ripped off in several places, and both front and rear porches are damaged. One post on the front porch was knocked completely off, while the other three were torn loose from the roof. Several windows were broken.

Inside, the walls are cracked, and furniture and fixtures are broken. A large cabinet radio, a refrigerator, and a number of tables were knocked down. The refrigerator in falling struck a gas range and damaged it.

A.F.L. Picket Line Immunity Refused State Legislators

Business Agent for Hotel Employes Union Says They Must Consult Consciences

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 26 (AP)—New York's legislators will not be granted picket line "immunity" at the struck Ten Eyck and DeWitt Clinton Hotels, the A.F.L. strikers declare.

Kostas Dakchoylous, business agent for Local 471, Hotel and Restaurant Employes Union, said last night "legislators must consult their own consciences."

Senator Arthur H. Wicks had requested what he termed "immunity" for 150 state senators and assemblymen who usually stay at the hotels.

The Kingston Republican said "it is the constitutional duty of legislators to be here to transact the state's business. The hotels are home for many of them."

He said he had appealed to Secretary-Treasurer Harold Hanover of the State Federation of Labor.

Wicks said: "I want immunity to freely walk through the picket lines without being characterized as anti-labor."

Hanover said he submitted the request to Local 471. However, Dakchoylous said he had received no formal request.

Many legislators have found other quarters, rather than cross the picket lines.

The strike started at the Ten Eyck February 17 when 260 members of Local 471 and of the Bartenders Union, Local 98, left their jobs. They were joined by 200 DeWitt Clinton employes Saturday.

The union said the dispute arose over the length of the work week. The union contended its members worked from 48 to 56 hours a week, and sometimes, 60 hours. Their demand is for a 40-hour week.

State mediation officials have been unsuccessful in two attempts at settlement. Hotel and union spokesmen say no further talks are scheduled.

Several organizations have transferred meetings, originally scheduled for the struck hotels. They included the State Civil Service Association "stunt dinner" tonight; the gridiron dinner of the Legislative Correspondents Association March 6, and the State Society of Professional Engineers meeting Friday and Saturday. They have been moved to the Hendrick Hudson Hotel at Troy.

Shakeup in Dewey Family Rumored in Albany Circles

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 26 (AP)—Reports of an impending shakeup in Governor Dewey's official and political family persisted today despite the absence of definite confirmation.

Word flew through the Capitol that in the spring:

1. Chairman Milo M. Maltbie, New York city Democrat, would retire from the Public Service Commission.

2. Senate Republican Leader Benjamin F. Feinberg of Plattsburgh would retire from the Senate and succeed Maltbie.

3. Senator Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston would become acting majority leader of the smaller House.

4. Glen R. Bedenkapp of Lewiston would relinquish the chairmanship of the Republican State Committee at the expiration of his term to become Court of Claims Judge.

5. Wicks or Rep. Dean Taylor of Troy would succeed Bedenkapp as chairman.

6. Senator Floyd E. Anderson, Binghamton Republican, would replace Neal Brewster, Syracuse Democrat, on the Public Service Commission.

Informed of the reports, Feinberg said, "I am not resigning during the legislative session. I don't know what I'm going to do after the session," which will end the middle of next month.

"I haven't any plans to make any change," Feinberg said. "I don't know whether or not I will seek re-election next fall."

Feinberg has been reported in poor health and has been represented as desirous of dropping the heavy duties of majority leader. He has been in the Senate 16 years.

"There isn't anything the matter with my health," he told a reporter last night. "I feel better now than at any time since I became majority leader."

Maltbie, reached in New York city, declined to comment. He is 77 years old and returned only yesterday from Florida, where he went to recuperate from an illness. He has been P.S.C. chairman since 1931 and his latest 10-year term expires in February, 1951. The chairmanship pays $17,500 a year.

Unanimity Wicks Demand

Wicks, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said a group of veteran Republican senators had asked him to become acting majority leader if and when Feinberg resigned. Wicks would hold this post until next January, when a new Legislature is to elect its leaders.

Wicks said he would accept the majority leadership on a permanent basis only if the G.O.P. senators were unanimously for him.

Bedenkapp could not be reached for comment, but he denied recently a report that he was stepping aside as state chairman, when his term expires in April, to fill a $13,500-year vacancy on the Court of Claims. At that time it was rumored that he would be succeeded by Thomas Broderick, Monroe county Republican leader.

Anderson is chairman of the Senate Public Service Committee and is understood to be amenable

La Marre Says General Offer Lure of Bright Financial Future in Dayton

Promises Cited

Says Meyers Contacted Him at Plant in California

Washington, Feb. 26 (AP)—Bleriot H. LaMarre said today that Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers lured him from a California war job with a promise of a bright, financel future in a Dayton, O., business owned by Meyers.

The 36-year-old accountant testified as the principal government witness against Meyers, former deputy purchasing chief of the Army Air Forces.

Meyers is being tried on charges of inducing LaMarre to tell falsehoods last summer at a Senate investigation of Meyers' private business deals.

Witnesses told a Senate subcommittee that the 52-year-old general made more than $150,000 wartime profit from the Aviation Electric Company, a Dayton plane parts plant.

LaMarre has pleaded guilty to separate perjury charges growing out of the Senate inquiry. He has yet to be sentenced.

LaMarre said he was working for the Douglas Aircraft Corporation in Santa Monica in 1939 when Meyers contacted him. He said Meyers asked him to return to Dayton "because he wanted someone he could trust to look after his interests" at Aviation Electric.

LaMarre told the federal jury that Meyers promised "I would make more money and eventually get a share in the company."

The witness said Meyers also promised that Aviation Electric would be "built up into a large company with a substantial income," even though the firm then had only $20,000 in contracts.

"He told me he was sure we could continue the business after the $20,000 contracts were completed because of his wide business contacts throughout the country," LaMarre related.

"Did he say what kind of business contacts?" the witness was asked.

"As I recall it now," LaMarre replied, "they were mostly aircraft companies."

Was His Secretary

LaMarre's wife, Mildred, was Meyers' secretary in Dayton earlier, LaMarre said. He explained that in the Aviation Electric deal Mrs. LaMarre was to resume as Meyers' secretary.

Dr. Noble Assails U. S. Complacency

Syracuse U. Dean Speaks at Club Dinner; Stevenson Heard

Warning that complacency on the part of an individual or a nation can be expected to bring little short of self destruction, Dr. Charles C. Noble, dean of Syracuse University, speaking at the 23rd annual George Washington's Birthday dinner sponsored by the Men's Club of the First Dutch Reformed Church last evening, urged for action if the problems of today are to be solved and democracy saved.

Speaking on "Never Take Life For Granted," Dr. Noble said far too many people were content to "take things for granted and hope we somehow will muddle through."

Sorrell Very Much Irked Over Charge About Red Tinge

Washington, Feb. 26 (AP)—Herbert K. Sorrell, Hollywood union leader, promised to make it hot today for rivals who charged he has a Communist tinge.

"It sounds like hell against me now, but wait till I get on the witness stand," Sorrell told a reporter.

Matthew M. Levy, counsel for the A.F.L. International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes (I.A.T.S.E.), told a House Labor Subcommittee yesterday. Sorrell has "followed the Communist party line since 1937."

He said a strike against Hollywood studios which began in September, 1946, is "part of a conspiracy" for Communists to control the movies.

The I.A.T.S.E. is not on strike. Sorrell is president of the rival A.F.L. Conference of Studio Unions (C.S.U.), one of the groups which walked out.

The inter-union dispute is over the right to perform certain work on movie stage sets.

In advance of today's session, Sorrell told newsmen he had sworn before a California State Fact-Finding Committee on Un-American Activities that he had "never even seen a Communist party card."

"I was one of the first union leaders to sign an anti-Communist

35 Exhibitors Are Listed to Date for Exposition Booths

Industrial, Mercantile Show March 9-13 at Auditorium; Lion Project

Approximately 35 exhibitors have filed application for "Kingston Area on Parade," sponsored by the Kingston Lions Club to be held at the municipal auditorium March 9-13, according to Clifford V. Bunting, vice-chairman of the Exposition Committee.

Mr. Bunting said today that while 90 per cent of the exposition space has been reserved the committee can accept a few more applications for this outstanding industrial and mercantile show. He also reported that an estimated $5,000 in prizes would be given away during the exhibit, with a substantial amount offered each evening of the show.

The exposition points up the diversification of industries, types of services and supplies which are available in the area, and the importance of Kingston as a trading center. It will also provide a demonstration of the articles which are manufactured locally and have a nation-wide distribution.

"Kingston Area on Parade," Mr. Bunting added, "is the first combined mercantile and industrial show of its kind ever held in this city. Similar shows have been held in cities throughout the state and proved very successful."

In addition to the prizes offered each evening at the exposition, a program of entertainment for visitors will be provided, and this aspect of the program is being arranged by Robert Teetsel.

Among the exhibitors who have already filed application are: Electrol, Inc.; Eastern Tractor Manufacturing; M. Reina; Herzog Supply Co.; Island Dock Lumber Co.; J. R. Shults; Phelan & Cahill; Kolts Electric; Central Hudson; and the Baer Music Studios, which will give music recitals each night of the exhibit.

Czechs Will Be Under Rule Patterned on Soviet Russia

Purging of Those in Communist Disfavor Expected to Follow Soon, Weapon Will Be Charge of Conspiracy

Prague, Feb. 26 (AP)—Czechoslovakia is completely under Communist control today and the way is clear for transforming the republic, modeled at birth after the United States, into a copy of Soviet Russia.

The pattern for the minority parties will be to purge their ranks of all persons who have fallen into Communist disfavor. Communist sympathizers now are in control of those parties.

The weapon is ready—the charge of conspiracy against the government by "agents of reaction." This was provided by Communist Premier Klement Gottwald himself. Now in complete control of the press and propaganda outlets, the Communists have all means at their disposal to drive home this campaign.

The nation fell under complete Communist domination last night. The Communist party, largest at the last election but still a minority in the Parliament, has achieved a cabinet made up of its members and trusted sympathizers. Only a

Ex-Naval Officer Is Found Choked To Death in Hotel

New York, Feb. 26 (AP)—An ex-naval officer, traveling under orders from the Navy Department, was found strangled in his ransacked West 57th street hotel room yesterday. The 35-year-old victim was bound hand and foot and strips of bed sheet were knotted around his neck.

The man was identified as Harvey Haeberle, Falls Church, Va., a civilian employe of the Navy's photographic division at Anacostia Air Station in Washington, D. C. The Navy said Haeberle served as its contact man with commercial studios filming training movies.

The victim was bound in a version of the old Chinese strangle knot, police said.

Haeberle's hands and feet were lashed behind him with strips of sheeting. His belt and another piece of the torn sheet were twisted about his neck. A chain strip running down his back linked the knots so that any movement to break free would tighten the noose around his neck until he choked.

The disordered hotel room indicated that Haeberle had put up a fierce struggle for his life before being overpowered.

Lamps were overturned and papers strewn about the room. The victim's suitcase had been opened and its contents scattered. Haeberle's wallet was missing and the pockets of his suit had been turned inside out.

Police Commissioner Arthur Wallender said robbery apparently was the motive for the slaying.

The body, clad only in shorts, was found by a hotel maid.

DuMond Expresses Fear Cattle Lab Presents Danger

State Withholds Approval on U. S. Project Due to Proximity to N. Y. Farms

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 26 (AP)—The state has withheld approval of the establishment on Long Island of a U. S. Research Laboratory to study hoof and mouth disease in cattle.

Agriculture Commissioner C. Chester DuMond told federal officials yesterday New York would not approve the proposed project until the Agriculture Department was satisfied that New York livestock raisers understood the hazards.

Responsibility for possible spread of the disease must be assumed by cattle breeders, DuMond said.

Cattlemen fear the disease which is ravaging Mexico herds, will spread into this country.

Episcopal Bishop To Make National Appeal Sunday

Donations Will Be Asked for Million in Day; Extensive Help Given Europe

During 1947 American churches gave over five million dollars in cash, and more than 15 million pounds of miscellaneous supplies to help the hungry, sick, naked peoples of war-wrecked countries in Europe and Asia. During 1947 the Episcopal Church raised a million dollars in cash, and gathered tons of supplies.

In view of needs that increase rather than decrease, the Episcopal Church throughout the country is trying to secure another million dollars for 1948 . . . most of it in one day! Launching the effort the presiding bishop of the church, the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, will speak directly to congregations gathered in their parish churches on Sunday, February 29. The services that morning will begin and continue as usual, up to exactly 11:32½ a. m., when Bishop Sherrill's voice will be heard in thousands of churches from coast to coast, through an unprecedented combination of network and independent radio stations, a combination so vast that it will reach the smallest and remotest mission as well as the great city church. Literally there is no part of the whole United States that will not be reached by Bishop Sherrill's statement about bitter need as he himself has seen it in Europe, and the part of Christians everywhere in relieving the needs of fellow-Christians overseas . . . and the bringing of new hope to people who have lost even the sense of human dignity.

The Episcopal campaign is believed to be the first important relief effort of this year by any church, and it is the only church campaign ever to be inaugurated with the assistance of such an extraordinary radio arrangement.

Episcopal church leaders explain that while government aid and secular relief agencies can reduce physical want and provide basic essentials of life, such agencies cannot attempt to offer the spiritual vitality so lacking in the war-disrupted countries. Only the church can do this. The United Nations is authority for the statement that today two-thirds of the people alive in the world are not getting enough to eat. Half of all the people, more than a billion of them, are living close to the starvation line. Forty per cent of the people near starvation are children under fifteen. Said a U.N. statement, "this arithmetic of tragedy presents a vivid picture of the so-called growing generation. To an alarming degree it is a picture of a dying generation."

In Kingston, St. John's and Holy Cross are cooperating fully in the Episcopal relief campaign. The rector supplied the information that radio equipment has been set up and that everything will be in order so that at the specified instant, the presiding bishop will be heard by a congregation which is expected to tax the seating capacity of the churches.

CAREY EXEMPLIFIES BROTHERHOOD

There can be no better example of Brotherhood, being observed this week, than the sacrifices made for 29 years by Former Mayor Eugene B. Carey to aid his ailing comrades of World War 1.

For 29 years the uptown insurance man served in the post of Ulster County Veterans' Relief Commissioner, working without pay to see that veterans and their dependents received compensation for war connected disabilities.

The only sad note in the whole setup is that Mr. Carey has resigned, effective March 1. He served ably and well, and many a veteran can thank him for due consideration. If it were not for the unselfish, brotherly spirit manifested by him, many a serviceman and his family might have gone unattended in time of strife.

We do not have to go back to the days of great men like Washington, Lincoln and others to find big-hearted brothers willing to sacrifice for their fellowmen.

This is only a small tribute to a man who answered the call to arms and saw fit to continue his service to his countrymen after the Armistice in 1918. He is bound to live long in the memory of those he aided, and his exemplification of Brotherhood is a lesson for all.

Eugene Carey will be missed by the veterans of both World Wars, and, whoever takes his place must be prepared to do a big job gratis. Carey deserves a rest from his labors. May he enjoy a few more hours of leisure to the fullest extent.

PERSEVERANCE COUNTS

If you doubt the axiom that those of German descent are persevering, reflect on the 80th anniversary of the Kingston Maennerchor observed with a banquet in the Governor Clinton Hotel last Saturday.

When George E. Ventz, president of the singing society, talked about planning the event, he was told "it's a big job for a big man willing to do a lot of work and sacrifice a lot of time." Some even went as far as saying it couldn't be done on a large scale.

But, there was no discouraging President Ventz and his Festival Committee. They all buckled down to work. There wasn't a minute wasted under the able guidance, vitality and spirit of this aggressive leader.

The result: A dignified affair attended by more than 300 men and women, mostly in formal attire, from all sections of the Hudson valley, interested in promoting good singing and Brotherhood. Those who attended the affair, whether they were of German lineage or not, fully enjoyed the chorals composed by the artists of the Fatherland—Wagner, von Suppee, Geibel, Stolz, Wengert, Buechse, etc.

Civic leaders attending the event wished the Maennerchor success, and, judging from the marvelous start in the revival of the organization that once was one of the most prominent in the community it will again thrive under the leadership of President Ventz and his co-workers whose spirit and enthusiasm are equalled only by their untiring labor and perseverance.

WAR MANNERS

Uncle Sam is generally shrewd enough in an ordinary bargain, and on the spot when it's a matter of fighting and winning a war. But he has a strange habit of seeming to assume that when such a task is achieved there will never be any more wars to fight. Two generations in recent times have seen it happen, and there is no assurance that it will not happen again, on a still greater and more terrible scale. This is a very small world now, and military authorities say that our own American part of it is the "number one target."

It does not necessarily follow that we, along with our friends of this hemisphere both above and below the equator, should arm to the teeth and go around flourishing weapons and threatening the outside world. That would probably just make things worse. We should not bluster. We should have weapons, not use them except as a last resort. Most essential of all, we should know the world, and make sure that the world knows us and our purposes.

"And what are our purposes?" They are simple, honorable and direct. We want to cooperate in shaping the whole world and its people as a decent place to live in and fulfil our destiny.

By the time Uncle Sam gets Europe out of her troubles, there will be plenty of other international jobs. But he'll have more experience.

An obvious fault just now among the American people is too much spending and not enough saving.

BENES

There are always men, great and small, who are certain they can do the impossible. You have known them: the man who can run the banks of the country differently and better; the man who can operate the United States Steel Corporation better than Ben Fairless; the man who never laughs when he sees a play by George Bernard Shaw; the man who knows precisely how to manage the newspaper you are reading now better than its publisher. Among the statesmen such a man runs his head into a stone wall of historic fact.

Such a man is Eduard Benes, President of Czechoslovakia, who conceived the brilliant idea of looking both East and West simultaneously. This Janus-faced policy was supposed to be the smartest ever conceived and the Czechs have been inordinately proud of their achievement. It was designed to make it possible for Czechoslovakia to be a Western nation while at the same time it was an Eastern nation. Czechoslovakia was to have a free economy while at the same time it permitted their own Communists to select the Premier, to accelerate a Communist propaganda and to become what is called a majority-party, changing the freedom of Western European economics into slavery of Marxism.

The first sign that the Czechs had that they were not in control of their own affairs was when Jan Masaryk at the San Francisco Conference, served as a diplomatic valet to Molotov. That was the tip-off. Masaryk is not a Communist but he could work with them if it suited him. He is an opportunist.

The second sign was when Czechoslovakia wanted to join the nations of Western Europe that were to meet to consider the Marshall Plan. Russia told Czechoslovakia to stay away. And Czechoslovakia stayed away. That was the second tip-off, and it was an unmistakable one. Whether one is for or against the Marshall Plan, it has to be admitted that the nations of Western Europe that met at Paris to set up the program represented, together with Spain, all that is left of what might be called Western civilization in Europe. Czechoslovakia, which rightly belonged at the conference, was not present. Czechoslovakia there and then became a part of the Russian world.

Benes, at that point, could have appealed to the United Nations to judge between him and Stalin, between the right of a sovereign nation to form its own foreign policy, to determine its own economic policy, without interference from outside. Stalin did interfere in the internal affairs of Czechoslovakia and Benes took it. He probably thought he had another trick up his sleeve. Maybe he thought that Masaryk had another trick up his sleeve. Maybe he thought that he could outwit a steamroller that is not to be resisted by speeches.

So, now it has come at last, Russia is moving on Czechoslovakia as it moved on Hungary, as it moved on every Balkan country except Greece. This is war by propaganda—war by treachery and the utilization of Quislings. What Hitler planned at Munich; what traitors did in every country into which the German armies marched was petty larceny compared with the horrible miseries that Stalin is bringing to country after country. And there is no stopping him at any particular point as long as the Western Powers lack the will or daring to stand up to him even on the basis of their opposition to Hitler. Czechoslovakia is only another step in the march to Europe's death.

There are men that serve Russia in every country: Togliatti in Italy; Thorez and Duclos in France; Gottwald in Czechoslovakia.

Who is the man in the United States who, in pursuit of personal power and personal advantage, is playing this silly game of believing, like Benes, that he can evade becoming the prisoner of those who are willing to feed his vanity, supply him with a claque to applaud his platitudes, to cheer his every gesture, while he, Janus-faced, looks both East and West, playing both ends against the middle?

It would seem to me that Henry Wallace is the Eduard Benes of America—albeit a less graceful one.

That Body of Yours

LOW BACK PAIN AND SCIATICA

Until recently, nearly all cases of low back pain and sciatica were thought to be due to strain or sprain of the sacroiliac joint—the joint between the last bone of the spine and the hip bone. The fact that first strapping this joint with adhesive tape relieved pain, and the wearing of a snug abdominal belt for several months brought complete relief, seemed to prove that sacroiliac sprain was the cause of practically all cases of low back pain.

However, during the past few years, by careful examination, injection of a dye and X-rays, it has been found that a crushed or ruptured disk — the fibrous cushion between the bones (vertebrae) of the spine — is the cause of many cases of low back pain and sciatica, as the crushed disk presses on the roots of the nerves supplying muscles in the lower back. By removal of the crushed disk, thus taking pressure off the nerves, thousands of patients have obtained complete or almost complete relief from pain. However, just as with other new forms of treatment or methods of operation, there have been some failures from this operation reported, so that an end-result study of intervertebral disk operation is of interest.

In the "Journal of Joint Surgery," Dr. R. E. Lenhard reports his survey of a series of 843 patients by means of a questionnaire as to symptoms. These patients all had been operated on for low back pain by the removal of the intervertebral disk. While the answers were simply "yes" or "no," few of the patients were "entirely" relieved of all symptoms, so that they were classified as having excellent results, able to perform their normal activities without complaint. The results, therefore, were reported as good, improved, or not improved.

The results obtained were that 63½ of the patients showed good results, about 20 per cent were improved, and 16½ per cent not improved. The symptoms persisting after operation were numbness of legs, cramping of foot, weakness of back. When we think of the terrible pain in the back and leg before operation, these symptoms do not seem serious.

Excess-Profits Tax Revival Would Cause Panic and Depression; Would Ruin Most Business

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Feb. 26—The favorite way of needling American business nowadays is to threaten to revive the excess-profits tax.

If such a move really had any support in Congress—which it decidedly has not—there would be a panic in the markets of the country that would lead directly to a depression.

The reason is that a revival of the excess-profits tax would ruin most businesses today and paralyze the entire economic system. It is one thing to impose an excess-profits tax when there is one customer, like the government, spending billions of dollars a month in wartime with no competition between producers and no problem of raising capital. It's quite another to strangle industry in the post-war period by putting a ceiling on profits from which expansion money and working capital is derived.

Such proposals for a revival of the excess-profits tax as are made usually ignore the question of what base is to be used as "normal." If last year or the year before were used or if wartime years were to be considered the base, some of the larger companies would come out pretty well. Others would suffer. If the old base of 1936-1939 were used, the well-entrenched or well-heeled companies would still pay less percentage of taxes than the companies that were growing up in that period or which operate in the red. This is believed to be the base planned by the radicals.

It is the small- or moderate-sized business, however, which is hurt by an excess-profits-tax law. This happened during World War 1 and it has happened again after World War 2. The New Deal certainly wrote an excess-profits law that favored the large companies. Some ambiguously worded clauses were inserted in the law supposedly to give "relief" to smaller companies, but these have largely proved unworkable and the unsettled cases are numerous.

Anyone who talks about reviving the excess-profits tax without studying what happened with the war tax and how the big companies benefitted and the smaller ones were hurt is ignoring the economic facts of life.

If an excess-profits tax were imposed in peacetime, however, there would be a collapse of many important businesses because they could no longer finance the large operations in which they are now engaged. At the very time when more working capital than ever is needed to handle turnover of products required to overcome shortages, the government would be stopping production by impairing capital formation.

The trouble with an excess-profits tax or any ceiling on profits is that it inevitably must lead to a freezing of wages. If profits are squeezed down and wage rates are permitted to rise, the end result is bankruptcy or receiverships and plenty of unemployment.

The worst enemy of the workingman in America is the man who today proposed a revival of the excess-profits tax without at the same time providing for a freeze on wages and prices. In other words, if one segment of the economy is uncontrolled and the other segments are not, a serious maladjustment results. The worker would be the chief victim of such a destructive policy and the advocates of state socialism would cry out for government capital and government ownership so as to pay deficits and maintain employment.

Under the free-enterprise system of private ownership, prices are allowed to find their natural level. It takes time but evolution is essential. Monopolies are prosecuted under the anti-trust laws. Labor monopolies, however, which fix industry-wide prices of labor, are not subject to the anti-trust laws.

It is significant that in many categories prices already are falling. This is because supply is exceeding demand. The real crisis will come when the volume of sales declines and the profits start downward, too. The so-called "break even" point in many businesses is much higher today in respect to volume of business done than at any time in our economic history. The situation will not be cured by limiting profits and demoralizing production.

Fortunately those who talk so loosely about excess profits know full well there isn't a handful of votes in Congress in favor of such a course.

Keeps Pears White

Lemon juice helps to keep pears white after they have been peeled and cut. The diced fruit may be used in a Waldorf salad instead of apples. To do so, mix the diced pears with an equal amount of celery and then add mayonnaise or a mayonnaise-type salad dressing and a handful of broken walnut meats.

Similar Pigment

Blue eyes and black eyes contain exactly the same coloring pigment, known as melanin, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica. The difference in color is the result of the way in which light is reflected from the surfaces of the fibers which make up the iris. Black eyes also have more melanin than do blue eyes.

plied by science to gain maximum health for himself.

Beginning of routine county wide inspection of restaurants.

Routine checking of the sanitation of all county schools with the correction of major health hazards.

Provision of increased bedside nursing care for those who are ill at home to aid them in the path toward recovery.

Development of a countywide rapid treatment program for venereal disease with careful follow up of all cases.

The monthly report also points out many added matters which will be developed during the coming year.

Report on TB Hospital

Dr. George W. Weber, medical director of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital, reports occupancy of the hospital for January was 93 per cent of capacity. There were seven admissions, three of which were readmissions of patients who had left against advice before. There were five discharges, two of them due to death. The other three were patients whose disease had become quiescent. Examinations at out-patient clinics numbered 281, the small number during the month being due to bad weather conditions.

Adele Didricksen, director of the Division of Public Health Nursing, reports the appointment of Evelyn Merchant, R.N., the resignation of Marcia Lane, health educator; and the departure of Eleanor Flint, R.N. apprentice public health nurse who entered Syracuse University in January. During January headquarters were opened in Highland for the three nurses serving the towns of Lloyd, Plattekill, Marlborough, Shawangunk and Gardiner.

Equipment Saved

The Highland library building in which the town of Lloyd Health Center was located, recently was damaged by fire. Most of the health center equipment and supplies, however, was saved and the health center is now operating temporarily from the offices of Attorney Andrew W. Lent and normal operations are being continued.

During January 13 child health conferences were held throughout the county. Many adults took the diphtheria immunization at the clinics and public health nurses assisted in administering booster doeses to children in the city schools. A mass meeting was held in Ellenville to discuss the problem of heart disease and Dr. I. Jay Brightman, assistant director of medical administration, New York State Department of Health, led that discussion. A staff conference for public health nurses was conducted on tuberculosis with Karen Munche, tuberculosis consultant from New York City Health Department leading that discussion.

Water Supplies Good

Harry F. Edinger, director of Division of Environmental Sanitation, reports water supplies good. There was a break in the Port Ewen distribution system in January which made necessary discontinuance of the supply in a small area but quick repairs were made and the system was not affected.

James Hunter of Marlborough retired on January 1 as superintendent of the Marlborough Water District. He was the dean of water superintendents of the county, having served Marlborough for many years.

During January 66 applications for permits for sale of milk in Ulster county were received. After an inspection none of the applications were denied although temporary permits for 30 days was granted several pending receipt of certifications from health inspection agencies covering sources of supply outside Ulster county. All stores handling milk must have a permit from the Ulster County Commissioner of health covering such milk sales. Inspection of 318 stores was made and permits were issued covering adequacy of refrigeration and approval of milk sources.

Sewage disposal inspections were made and found operating normally.

Plan Rabies Fight

Plans are now being made by the department to work on rabies control if that disease spreads from adjacent counties to Ulster county. Rabies in Delaware county is expected to spread east of the Delaware river to Ulster county and an advisory council will be formed consisting of health officers, members of governing boards, law enforcement officials and interested lay groups such as representatives from the fish and game clubs and dog owners. Rabies is being spread by foxes.

The statistical report shows 18 cases of chickenpox in January. There were 64 infant diphtheria immunizations, 23 pre-school; 33 school and 2,861 booster doses administered.

Five cases of pneumonia were reported and six streptococcal diseases. Five active cases of pulmonary tuberculosis were reported and there were three deaths from that disease in January. During the month there were 150 first examination and 131 re-examinations for tuberculosis. There were 341 X-rays on adult hospital admissions under the program financed by the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Two suspicious cases were found and there were four inactive cases and two active cases discovered by this means.

During January there were 112 births, three stillbirths and seven deaths up to one month of age and one death between one month and 11 months of age.

General mortality reported in January was 94, exclusive of stillbirths. Deaths were as follows:

Heart Disease Leads

Heart disease 40; cancer, 13; cerebal hemorrhage, 15; accident one; nephritis, one; diabetes, 5; pneumonia, two; , tuberculosis, three and 11 from other causes. Five county residents died outside the county.

Thirteen water supplies were inspected and eight sewage inspection visits made. There were 435 milk inspection visits during the month.

Of the 251 milk samples taken 91 per cent of the Plate count was satisfactory, 87 per cent B. Coli satisfactory and 100 per cent of Phosphatase samples were satisfactory from local sources. Sixty out of county samples were taken and 83 per cent of plate count was satisfactory, 92 per cent B. Coli and 100 per cent Phosphatase.

During the month there were 54 general investigations made including 10 nuisance, four restaurant complaints, 11 dog bite, 16 school complaints, 10 garbage complaints, one meat inspection and two institutional surveys.

The Kingston meat inspector reports 334 cows and 381 calves examined. Condemned was three hearts, 14 livers, 68 lungs, three kidneys, one head and one tongue, a total of 90.

The Kingston Plumbing Inspector reports 64 investigations. There was one application for new building installation, 20 applications for installations in existing buildings, 22 preliminary inspections, 18 final inspections and 3 complaints reported and investigated.

Bills Proposed in Legislature

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 26 (AP)—A Democratic legislator today proposed a half-billion dollar state-financed, low-rent public housing program, subject to popular approval in the November election.

The bill was introduced by Assemblyman Bernard Austin of Brooklyn.

The electorate approved a $300,000,000 housing bond issue in 1938 and another $135,000,000 last fall, all of which has been allocated.

The Dewey administration, however, is known to oppose further housing bond issues. It agreed to the $135,000,000 proposal last year in a compromise understanding with Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York city. The Democrats wanted $300,000,000.

Another bill introduced yesterday would appropriate $1,700,000 as state aid for child care centers and day nurseries. It was sponsored by four New York city Republicans, Senator MacNeil Mitchell and Assembly members Maude T. Ten Eyck, John R. Brook and Archibald Douglas, Jr.

The state program of aid to child care centers expired last October 31, but was continued on a temporary basis for New York city centers until December 31. The administration offered instead a broadened program of state-aide for prevention of juvenile delinquency.

The Legislature's Democratic minority tried unsuccessfully Tuesday to slash $1,000,000 from the Commerce Department appropriation in Dewey's budget and to earmark the amount for child care centers.

A bill introduced by Senator Ernest I. Hatfield, Poughkeepsie Republican would grant additional state aid of $2,500 to school districts maintaining agriculture courses in high schools; appropriates $175,000.

Lawmakers Establish Record for Offerings

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 26 (AP)—The 1948 legislature has established an all-time record for introduction of bills.

Lawmakers, scurrying to beat yesterday's deadline for submitting legislation, poured 636 measures into the mill. This brought the session total to a record 5,387.

The previous high of 5,313 was established last year.

From now until adjournment, expected about March 13, legislation may be introduced only under sponsorship of rules committees of both houses.

A young man whose first job was that of a reporter on a newspaper was having a lot of trouble writing his stories. All his efforts seemed to find their way into the waste basket.

Finally one day the city editor called him in, and said:

City Editor—Look, you don't quite know what the public is interested in, what news really is. For example, if a dog bites a man, that isn't news. But if a man bites a dog, that's news.

The young man thought about that, and several days later the paper came out with the following headline:

FIREPLUG BREAKS—
WETS DOG

A certain hired man doesn't think much of town girls who marry farmers and live on the farm. He said:

Hired Man—Why, I was working for one and wanted some sausage for breakfast and she didn't even know what sausage was. I brought some home and told her to fry it just like fish. The next morning, with a big, proud smile on her face she said, "I hope you like these sausages. There isn't much left of them after I got them cleaned out."

Deeds of Today

The only time we have to use is furnished by today;
We must not waste while moments flee, for time does not delay.
The hours of day are given once, so we must be prepared
To use our talents for the best, no effort must be spared.
When door of day is closed by night, and darkness hides the sun,
We then may count the pleasures gained from deeds which were well done.

Dr. Noble Assails

This type of attitude he predicted if followed, would lead only to one end, destruction. He urged that nations, particularly the Democratic nations, formulate some plan to meet the world's problems and "do something about it" before it is too late.

If we "take life for granted" we are "all through", Dr. Noble said and he compared that manner of living to "coasting down hill". There is only one way to coast and that is "down" said the speaker. What we need at this time is to abandon the spirit of self-satisfaction, quit coasting and work out some plan by which we can rise. If we fail to meet the present day crises, if we continue to stand by without doing anything to bring about a solution of present day problems then our nation is defeated.

Constructive Action Needed

Dr. Noble held that we should not take life for granted, we should treat life as though it will "slip away" unless we do something constructive to retain it. "War and science does not stand still", he warned and he said we must all "live eternally with our problems" if we are to solve them and move forward.

Democracy will stand or fall as America stands or falls, he said, and he cautioned that if we are to succeed we must push forward and progress. "Don't fear for democracy because of the struggles within democracy", Dean Noble said, "for that is the progress of equality."

Touching on the matter of equality, Dr. Noble said that if Democracy is to continue there must be equality and he urged that we "get at the problem" and solve it. He referred to the matter of colors in races. There are three men of color to one white man in the world and if we are to solve this problem "we must move fast" for unless we do solve this problem there will come a time when the men of the other races, predominating three to one, will rise and sweep the white man from power.

Referring to the gap which separates management and labor he said this conflict too caused all to suffer and he urged that in some way a plan be devised to "get together."

Democracy is now in a fluid state and must not be allowed to crystallize, there must be constant and continued work and activity now to bring about an understanding of Democracy among the people of the world if a Democracy is to survive and progress.

"Democracy is all right if we don't let it get hardening of the arteries," said Dr. Noble. He cautioned that we cannot rest, we must not 'fumble the ball' at this stage of the game, we must not get the idea that we cannot lose but we must be 'everlastingly' alert to see that America don't miss the bus just because we are satisfied to coast."

Internationally we must be "on the ball" for at this time half the world is hungry and we can't hold the world together in that state. There must be a better sharing of privileges in the world if we are to win the peace. "We must act or someone else over there will," he cautioned.

"There is no defense to the atom bomb or bacteriological warfare but total peace," said Dr. Noble.

He referred to the attempt to form a League of Nations after World War I and he said "we missed the ball" and allowed that opportunity to pass. We felt self satisfied. We sent scrap iron to Japan only to have it later thrown back at us in war and we had been content to allow Hitler to grow in power, perhaps with the idea that Hitler's empire might serve as a buffer between Democracy and Communism but it only resulted in war and in war, even though we win the war we are the losers.

Dr. Noble spoke of the part religion plays in the picture. He urged that we get rid of prejudices for prejudices serve to separate spiritual power and separation of spiritual power serves the purpose of "divide and conquer," a plan which has proven successful in the past in defeating the right. Dr. Noble, a minister, author and educator, referred to the spiritual illiteracy of many of the people of our land today, especially the young folks and said that there were three things which we sadly need, first, better religious education; second, better churchmanship and thirdly, better ethical fruitage.

Much of the "spiritual illiteracy," he said, was due to the church itself and its failure to take a progressive attitude. To overcome this there must be an awakening and the abolishing of the complacent attitude of the past and the establishing of uphill progress rather than the downhill coasting and the taking of life for granted.

Dr. Noble was introduced by Roger H. Loughran, president of the Men's Club, who acted as toastmaster of the evening. The invocation was by Rev. Dr. Frank B. Seeley and the benediction by Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom. During the evening Paul Zucca and his orchestra provided the music and Mr. Zucca led in group singing.

Stevenson Also Speaks

The second speaker of the evening was Charles John Stevenson, editor, publisher, lecturer and radio commentator who some years ago was a resident of Kingston. Known among radio listeners "The Jolly Judge," Mr. Stevenson has a program over station WGY mornings which he shares with Edward Mitchell, who accompanied Mr. Stevenson to Kingston Wednesday. Mr. Stevenson, now a resident of Cambridge, where he publishes a paper, spoke in his usual humorous vein, his topic being "The American Scene" in which he kept up a continuous series of humorous stories on American life. In a more serious vein Mr. Stevenson closed his talk with a plea that everyone attempt to serve others usefully, serving in a broad way to do any of the many useful things which are always present to be done.

At the opening of the program Mr. Loughran called upon the 260 men present to stand a moment in silent tribute to Dr. Lucas Bovee, who while pastor of the church, originated the Washington's birthday dinner series 23 years ago. Since that time the annual dinner has become an "institution" among Kingstonians. The group also paid silent tribute to the late Dr. Charles L. Palmer, Kingston minister, who died since the last annual dinner.

Czechs Will . . .

semblance of the old seven-party coalition is preserved.

(In London the British Foreign Office said Britain must now consider the question of recognition of the new Czechoslovak government. A Foreign Office spokesman said the Communists forced the government upon Czechoslovakia by using "undemocratic means." Britain has been consulting with the United States and France on the matter.)

Columns of Czech students attempted to march to Hrdcany Palace last night to see President Eduard Benes, who capitulated yesterday to Communist demands after holding out for almost a week. Police arrested 50 of them.

One student said the police used rifle butts to push back the marchers who reached Palace Square.

More than 10,000 students had gathered in the square before Charles University in a counter-demonstration to a Communist rally. Several thousand of them reached the Palace Square but were dispersed there by police.

Criticism of the government has disappeared from the Czechoslovak press, which, up to Monday night, had been carrying outspoken comment on the nation's political crisis.

Efforts to reach President Benes for an interview have been unavailing.

Strike Threat Used

Using the threat of a Communist-led general strike, Gottwald finally forced Benes last night to approve the new Communist government. The president accepted resignations of 14 anti-Communist ministers, 12 of whom had quit a week ago to protest Communist moves toward controlling the security forces of the nation.

In six days of bloodless revolution, the Communist Party had pressed its demands and won. It controlled the cabinet. It gave orders through the police and "action committees" to the whole country. It had crushed—for the time being at least—all effective opposition.

The Communists' next goal is to win the coming election and a majority in Parliament, where they now have 38 per cent of the seats by themselves and 52 per cent with their allies, the Social Democrats. Strategy in the meantime was to tighten their grip on the country by putting down opposition.

Gottwald gave the cue when, in public rallies, he spoke of the dozen resigning ministers as "agents of foreign reaction." Minister of Justice Alexej Cepicka, newly promoted from minister of internal trade, said "the forces of reaction will now try to make their comeback."

The election date has not been decided. When it comes, the likelihood seems to be that voters will be given a choice of several tickets but that candidates on those other than the Communist will have to be—in the Communist phrase—"Democratic Progressive" members.

Meanwhile, the pattern for the other parties was to purge their ranks of men and women fallen into disfavor because of anti-Communist views.

Many of the big names in the three parties whose ministers resigned to initiate the cabinet crisis are Parliamentary deputies. Pending an election, no one could say whether some other way might be found to oust them or have a Parliamentary committee strip them of immunity.

The Ministry of the Interior, long Communist controlled, has been building up its charges against many of the ministers for months. In a cabinet meeting February 18, Gottwald himself charged a right-wing putsch plot. Accusations have been made that spies for the western powers have been using Czechoslovakia as a base to work against.

Fuel Oil Black Market Is Being Probed in N.Y. City

Four Are Arrested in Case Involving 250,000 Gallons Stolen for Resale

New York, Feb. 26 (AP)—Four persons have been arrested in connection with an investigation of charges that 250,000 gallons of fuel oil has been stolen daily in the city and resold by drivers to personal customers at black market prices.

Fred J. Loughran, director of the City Bureau of Weights and Measures estimates that fuel oil truck drivers have directed into illegal channels approximately ten per cent of the oil scheduled for delivery to householders by using false receipts.

"On the basis of what I have learned from questioning drivers of fuel oil trucks," Loughran said yesterday, "it is safe to estimate the * * * more than 250,000 gallons a day is stolen all over the city."

"Ninety-nine per cent of those questioned said they stole," Loughran declared, adding that men questioned during the past week told him it was common practice to "chisel" part of the oil when the oil was being delivered.

"This might have gone on undetected," he said, "if, during the recent cold spell, the drivers had not become greedy and upper their clip to 20 and 30 per cent. This brought complaints."

While the investigation centered around drivers for the Meenan Oil Company, of 44 East 23rd street, Lougran said his department had extended its inquiry and had placed tested meters on fuel tanks in many premises in the city.

Customers Complained

William F. Kenny, president of the oil company, initiated the investigation because of complaints he had received from customers who suspected they were being cheated.

After secretly checking tanks of Meenan patrons, investigators for the weighs and measures bureau reported that more than 1,000,000 gallons of No. 2 oil, the scarcest of heating oils, had been diverted from house banks to the black market, Loughran said. Customers were billed $150,000 for fuel they never received.

Loughran made his disclosures after spending several hours at the office of Assistant District Attorney Louis G. Andreozzi, of Kings county (Brooklyn), where the four defendants were questioned and later arrested in connection with an alleged plot to steal oil from Meenan customers.

Four Defendants

The four defendants were booked as John Schidichimo, 35, of 490 Morgan avenue, Brooklyn; Robert Nelson, 17, his nephew, of the same address; Fred Ferber, 43, of 147-18 177th street, Jamaica, Queens, and Charles F. Robelen, 43, of 296 Nassau avenue, Brooklyn.

Schidichimo and Nelson were arrested early yesterday. Arraigned later in the day in Brooklyn Felony Court, Schidichimo was held in $2,500 bail for a hearing next Tuesday. Arraigned in Adolescents' Court, Nelson was held in $5,000 bail for hearing tomorrow.

Ferber and Robelen were booked by police last night.

All except Nelson were charged with forgery and petty larceny. The accusation against Nelson was contained in a short affidavit complaint but was not made public.

ization officials met here to consider the proposed laboratory.

Dr. William V. Lambert, research administrator for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, told the group a strong research program was necessary to discover methods of control should the disease enter the United States.

A bill to authorize a research program is pending in Congress.

One of the laboratory sites under consideration is on the eastern end of Long Island, Dr. B. T. Simms, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, said.

Laboratories have operated in Europe for many years and the disease has not spread to adjacent areas, he added.

The New York state conference board of farm organizations has neither approved nor disapproved establishment of a laboratory in the state, two spokesmen for the group said.

Vice Chairman Henry Sherwood of Pine Plains and Secretary E. S. Foster of Ithaca said in a statement:

"We recognize the seriousness of the foot and mouth disease, and we also recognize the need of practical and thorough research in this field."

They recommended a "broad educational program" to acquaint farmers with the seriousness of the disease and the need for research.

Dr. W. A. Hagan, dean of the State Veterinary College, said danger of the virus escaping from the research compound was "nearly negligible."

Milk Price Estimated

New York, Feb. 26 (AP)—A uniform price of $5.24 per 100 pounds (about 47 quarts) to be paid to producers in the New York milkshed for February was estimated yesterday. The estimate is seven cents less than that paid for last month's production. The forecast was made by C. J. Blanford, area milk market administrator. The actual February price will be announced by March 14.

Pre-Seasoned Fowl

Using a principal of physiology, Dr. A. Gaudicheau, of Paris, injected sauces and seasoning directly into the blood streams of chickens, with the contention this aided the flavoring to penetrate the meat, making it unnecessary to season it in cooking the fowl.

Rotary Will Hold Ladies' Night on Tuesday, March 2

Ladies' Night will be celebrated by Rotary Club Tuesday, March 2, at the Governor Clinton Hotel starting at 6:30 p. m., and will feature Jacques Romano, star entertainer whose early life was spent in the Orient.

Besides the appearance of Romano, the committee in charge of arrangements for the special function is planning other features including a speaker.

Romano, who is versed in the wisdom of ancient philosophy has long been a student of psychic phenomena, magic and mysticism of the Orient. A camel driver at one time in the Far East Romano was recognized for his potential ability later on by an elder of the Oriental Monastic Order. This enabled Romano to enter secluded retreats where he learned much of the esoteric life and mental control over the body.

In one part of his presentation his use of ordinary playing cards as tools to demonstrate his control of the senses by mind attraction and detraction will amaze and amuse. He will also demonstrate extra sensory perception.

Members of Rotary and the guests at the Ladies' Night program are expected to find Romano both constructive and entertaining through his demonstration of mental control. He also compares the philosophy of desert life with the modern trend of psychology.

An outstanding example of vigor and youthfulness, the Rotary entertainer believes that the normal span of life should not be less than 120 years and during his appearance in Kingston he is expected to describe how youthfulness of mental and physical activity may be maintained.

4 Crew Members Killed in Crash Of B-29 Bomber

Col. A. D. Clark, 8 Others Parachute to Safety as Plane Drops in Texas

Meridian, Tex., Feb. 26 (AP)—Four members of a 12-man crew were killed in the crash of a B-29 bomber near here last night.

The eight other crew members, including Col. Alan D. Clark of Fort Worth, Tex., 7th Bombardment Wing commander, parachuted through the rain and fog to safety.

One of a flight of 20 B-29's bound for the west coast, the bomber crashed in flames shortly after taking off from Carswell air base at Fort Worth, Tex. Clark was commander of the flight.

Names of the four victims, who were found in or near the scene of the wreckage, have not been released.

Besides Clark, the men who bailed out were First Lt. Frank H. Riggs, Orange, Tex.; First Lt. Frank M. Worley, Fort Worth; Capt. William S. Kern, Pasadena, Calif.; Staff Sgt. D. W. Aslin, Fort Worth; Staff Sgt. William W. Weaver, Falmouth, Ky.; Capt. Julian F. Moffat, Barksdale, Miss., and Lt. Col. Harry E. Goldsworth, Spokane, Wash.

"We were flying on instruments at 10,000 feet in a heavy rain and fog," Clark said.

He said the plane was burning as it fell.

Five hours after the bomber crashed it was still burning.

The site of the crash is about 12 miles from here and over a difficult route.

The bombers were on a routine training flight to the west coast via San Antonio and El Paso, Capt. William S. Waltman, Eighth Air Force public relations officer, said in Fort Worth.

Social Security May Be Opened to Others

Washington, Feb. 26 (AP)—Farmers and business and professional men may get a chance to buy government old age insurance.

Chairman Knutson (R.-Minn.) of the House Ways and Means Committee said today he hopes a way can be found for the some 12,000,000 self-employed to take part in the social security insurance program—at their own request.

Knutson reactivated the Ways and Means Subcommittee on social security, under Chairman Reed (R.-N.Y.) to study expansion of coverage and make recommendations.

About 42,000,000 job holders now have government old age insurance. They and their employers pay a special tax. After 65 they get benefits on the basis of their earnings.

However, farm operators, self-employed business and professional men and farm and domestic workers were left out of the program when the social security law was passed in 1935. The main reason was that no easy way could be found to collect the tax and figure out the credits for such persons.

Many proposals have been made since then to get these 20,000,000 people under the insurance program. The big questions have been whether their participation should be voluntary and how to do it.

Newburgh Reporter Joins News Editor

Newburgh, N. Y., Feb. 26 (AP)—A reporter for the Newburgh News today joined the news editor of his paper in refusing to tell the Orange county grand jury where he got a "numbers" lottery ticket reproduced in the newspaper.

The reporter, Charles L. Leonard, said that when he appeared before the grand jury today he declined to answer because "it would violate a confidence."

He said he took the same position that Douglas V. Clarke, news editor of the paper, took yesterday when he refused to tell the source of two tickets because in the newspaper business a confidence is a sacred thing."

District Attorney Stanley B. Johnson said after today's grand jury session that Clarke and Leonard would be taken before Supreme Court Justice J. Gordon Flannery. Johnson said that if they persisted in their refusal to give the information they would be cited for contempt.

The two tickets were reproduced by the paper in connection with a series of articles on alleged gambling and vice.

The grand jury, in its special investigation of vice and gambling, also questioned Wesley F. Gill, sports editor of the paper, at its session today.

Gill said he was asked the source of a notice, printed on a card and reproduced in the paper some time ago, announcing reductions in odds in winning numbers. He said he was excused after he told the grand jury he had picked the card up in the street and that he understood a large number of the cards had been distributed.

have been waiting outside the federal courtroom since Tuesday, when the trial began, to be called as witnesses.

Mrs. LaMarre is a former secretary of the general. He has claimed that she once was his "girl friend." She denied it and LaMarre called the general a "snake" for making the statement.

A defense motion for a mistrial was turned down by the court late yesterday. It was based on a prosecution disclosure that a pretty government witness, Mrs. June Ballou Grinsted, had been asked by the government to stay at the same hotel as the LaMarres for her "protection."

Assistant U. S. Attorney John Fihelly would not elaborate on what he meant by "protection." But he told Defense Counsel Robert T. Bushnell "You can use your imagination."

Mrs. Grinsted, who now lives at Boron, Calif., said Meyers put the bulk of the stock ownership of Aviation Electric in her name, even though she had no money in the firm.

Robert L. Pine, who said he helped Meyers organize the company, testified the general explained he wanted to hide his financial interests from the army.

Pine also said Meyers got him to pledge "not to volunteer" any information about the concern to Senate investigators.

Printers Stay Away

Philadelphia, Feb. 26 (AP)—Union printers failed to report for work today in Philadelphia's 28 major commercial printing firms. Sinclair Muir, president of the A.F.L. International Typographical Union's Local 2, refused to call the action by the 900 printers a strike. He said they merely were "not desirous of continuing their employment under the present low wage scale." The work stoppage—first here in 27 years—was decided upon last night by a vote of 1,110 to 58, Muir reported. Printers at Philadelphia newspaper plants are not involved in the dispute. However, Muir said that they been permitted to take part in the strike vote.

Schoolboy Injured By Car Failing to Make Stop for Bus

Gerald McCluskey, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross C. McCluskey, of 7 Lebert street, was struck and injured by an automobile on Wilbur avenue near Public School No. 1 about 4 p. m. Wednesday, according to the police.

The boy was taken by the driver of the car to the office of Dr. Maurice H. Silk, who reported to police that the boy had a sprained left knee and a contusion of the left abdominal wall.

Police investigated the accident and arrested the driver, Albert Mergendahl of 54 Franklin street, on a charge of overtaking and passing a stopped school bus. Mergendahl was driving north on Wilbur avenue at the time, and police charged that he did not stop and wait until the bus proceeded or until the driver signalled him to pass, as required by Subdivision 24, Sec. 81, Art. 6 of the Vehicle and Traffic Law.

In city court today, Mergendahl pleaded guilty as charged and was fined $10, the maximum provided by the law.

medical examiner, said death resulted from strangulation. He expressed belief that Haeberle had been dead since Tuesday night. The former naval officer registered at the hotel that day.

Two film executives, one who saw Haeberle on business the day of his arrival, and another who was to have conferred with him yesterday, were questioned last night by police. Their names and companies were withheld.

The victim, a lieutenant assigned to navy educational film work during the past war, was a former resident of Lancaster, Pa. He was graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1934 and entered the navy in 1942.

How to Squeeze 10 Tricks Out of 9

BY WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

I was very happy when A. J. (Andy) Mouat of Chicago was elected an Honorary Member of the American Contract Bridge League for 1948. Andy was secretary of the American Whist League for 30 or 40 years and is probably the oldest tournament director in the United States today. He conducts several duplicate games in the Chicago area, and this week he will be playing an important part in directing the Central States regional championships in Chicago.

Andy recently sent me today's lesson hand, and it brings out the lesson that I harp on most frequently—count your tricks!

When you win the first trick with dummy's ace of spades you should start to count. You can make one spade trick, five hearts and three diamonds. That makes nine, and if the diamonds break, you will make the fourth diamond.

But suppose they don't—is there any other way to count up to ten?

There most certainly is. Just decide you are going to make six heart tricks, three diamonds and the ace of spades, and here is the way to play it.

Ruff the three of spades with the eight of hearts, enter dummy by overtaking the nine of hearts with the ten, then ruff the six of spades with the jack of hearts. Next cash the king of hearts, go over to dummy with a diamond and ruff the seven of spades with your last trump, the queen of hearts.

Lead the five of diamonds to dummy's king and cash the ace of hearts, which is your sixth heart trick. On this trick you should discard a small club because the diamond suit still may break. But when it does not, you simply concede two clubs and a diamond.

Contract Signed

New York, Feb. 26 (AP)—Signing of a new wage contract which ultimately may affect 26,500 Manhattan service employes in 3,800 buildings was announced yesterday. The agreement affects directly 2,000 service employes in 200 commercial buildings, most of them in the fur and garment centers. David Sullivan, president of Local 32-B of the Building Service Employes International Union (A.F.L.), said he is confident that other employers will follow the lead of the Midtown Realty Owners Association in signing.

CREOMULSION

OUR BUYERS BLUNDERED

We're passing their mistakes on to you at "Cant Lose" prices. Some items are good . . . Some fair. Why, at these prices even the help will buy! No exchanges or refunds! Read every item . . . then come in early. This offer is good only 'til this Saturday.

TRILMONT HEATERS

Our buyers thought these heaters were a "hot" buy. Thank goodness, we only have 3 left. Were priced at $33 . . . but we'll take a $12 cut and you take one away for only $21.

ALUMINUM ROASTERS

Not as good as appraised by OPA but good enough for a few years' service. Imagine . . . 15 roasters and we don't sell roasters. Were $5.44 . . . we'll take $3.62 and call it quits.

ESTATE HEATROLA

Even with the oil shortage we couldn't sell these . . . we can't figure it out. They're big, and will do a terrific heating job. OPA priced it at $131.34, and that was a hot price . . . but we'll settle for $114.

NAT. FAMOUS TANK CLEANERS

Just 5 of these vacuum cleaners and we can't get rid of them. To sell them now we're throwing in all the accessories. It seemed to be overpriced at $69.95, so we're giving this nationally famous cleaner to you for only $44.

EASY TERMS

At Standard you can pay for your purchases on credit terms to please your pocketbook.

STAIR and HALL CARPETING

We had a lot more but we finally worked this 27" all wool stair carpeting down to 8 rolls. Made by leading rug mills . . . perfect merchandise only we're "loaded to the gills". Values to $6.95 . . . we're happy to sell it at your choice of colors for $3.70 a yard.

COCOA MATTING

Our buyers imported this matting from India . . . but . . . they didn't see it first. 36 inches wide and regularly $1.55 a yard. We're willing to lose, but good, on this deal and sell this for 60c a yd.

COCOA MATS

Brother, our buyers bought enough of these to supply several counties. Measure 16"x26" and sold for $2.59. We don't want 'em . . . you can have 'em at $1.39.

STAINLESS STEEL SMOKERS

Just 7 left of these. No cracking . . . no corrosion . . . no peeling . . . no discoloration . . . no selling. Regularly sold for $10.95. We'll let you carry them out of here at only $6 a throw.

BOX SPRINGS

None better. However, we don't have the exact matching colors in mattresses. But what's the difference? You'll use a mattress cover anyhow and soon forget about the color. All sizes and all colors. Were $39.50 and $49.50 . . . now, snap them up at $26.

SCATTER RUGS

These all wool fringed ovals have been kicking around until we're tired of looking at them. Just a few . . . measure 27"x48" and were $15.50. Take them away for $6 each.

Extra large fringed oval throw rugs that measure 36"x56". They're real pretty, but the boss said we've got to get rid of them. Sold for $13.50, but all 26 will go for just $7.77 each.

A little dusty . . . but who cares? I'd buy a throw rug for a buck any day in the week. Yet we give you a choice of shags, handhook or all wool fringed ovals. Values to $5.95; now a throw away at $1.

SOFAS

A Tuxedo sofa that is really well made by the largest period manufacturer. Has a lovely design and a Gerard green cover. We've just got the one, and can't seem to get rid of it. It's original price was $99 . . . but I'd bet you'd think about it twice before turning it down at $63.

A couple could really make beautiful music together in this Love Seat . . . but you've got to get it home first. Innerspring construction, all around fringe, rose cover, and all that sort of thing. Sold for $99 . . . we'd love to get $44 for it.

We sold plenty of these 3-cushion Charles of London sofas at their regular price of $189 . . . but we bought too many. You can have it for $96, so take it away. Has heavy rose corded tapestry cover.

A love seat that we have just one of. All aluminum frame, heavy blue leather innerspring cushions. We'd like to see it fly out of here and into some office. Was $151 . . . we'll take $64.

NO REFUNDS OR EXCHANGES

Because of the extremely low prices we cannot refund or exchange any of this merchandise.

LIVING ROOM SUITES

This is one of 6 suites we want to get out of the store. Heavy, massive velour with walnut wood trim. All 3 pieces were priced at $349 . . . we tried to get $298, but you can have it for $239 and a smile.

Just 2 of these suites to get rid of. Three pieces in blue and wine boucle. Was $389 . . . then $359 . . . then $325 . . . now I think $277 is a heck of a low price to ask for it!

We thought we were all through with this baby, but it popped up in inventory. All 3 pieces were priced at $289 . . . then we asked $229 for it. We really want to get rid of it for good this time. so we're asking a mere $182. Please take it away!

Our buyer said the cover on this suite is striped mohair and that it's a hot buy . . . the customers don't seem to believe it. Sold for $365. I think it's a real hot buy at $244. Red and blue. Two to go.

SINKS

They're really good but the majority of present day buyers are insisting on porcelain tops. Why argue? We'll sell them porcelain tops and sacrifice this 42" red line formica top sink, regularly $129 for only $77.

Everyone seems to want porcelain top sinks, that's why we're stuck with these stainless steel top, 42" sinks. We're willing to take a $52 shellacking and let them go for $87.

KITCHEN CABINET

If you want a big, and brother I said big, kitchen cabinet with oodles and oodles of space . . . drawers galore . . . this is it. White with red and black, porcelain top. It's okay, but it takes up half of our floor. Priced at $67.50, we'll let you have it for $46.

BREAKFAST SETS

Like an all wood breakfast set? We hope so because we want to get this one off our floor! It's made by the famous "Kuehne" factory and is white with red leather seats. Regularly $59.50 . . . . take it away for $36.

This is one "to write home about". Plastic and chrome. Were priced at $94.50 . . . which is self explanatory. Too high priced for public acceptance. Plastic, grey linen top table with end leaves, chrome leather chairs. $57 and no sales talk to accompany it!.

This porcelain, chrome breakfast set has hair-pin legs, side leaves on the table, cutlery drawer, chairs have leatherette seat and back . . . sure it's as is . . . but so what? At this $38 price what else could you want. Yes, it's white and black.

The only thing wrong with this breakfast set is that we can't sell it. That's why we've cut the price from $69.95 to $47. Chrome with solid oak table top . . . red leatherette seats and back chairs. Take it away at this low price!

PICTURES

Perhaps we don't appreciate good art . . . but we'll let these $9.95 framed "masterpieces" go for $6. A good item to cover up a damage spot on a wall.

About Motherhood

New Orleans, Feb. 26 (AP)—Prospective mothers were advised last night to disregard everything other women tell them about having babies. "There's nothing so interesting to a woman as another woman's pregnancy," Dr. Willard R. Cooke of the University of Texas told the New Orleans graduate medical assembly. "They like to tell her a lot of scare stories and she has no business paying any attention to them." Dr. Cooke, who is professor of obstetrics and gynecology at Texas, said that a woman's mental attitude toward birth is 95 per cent of the battle—both for her safety and to relieve her pain.

Broadcasts Hampered

New York, Feb. 26 (AP)—"Voice of America" broadcasts to Moscow have been partially throttled by interference since late December, a State Department officer said yesterday. But he added that there was no evidence "any of the interference is man-made, or intentional."

Legion Ladies Give Oxygen Tent

The American Legion Auxiliary of Ulster County as part of its community service program has presented equipment to the county public health nursing committees. At the recent county meeting in Port Ewen, an oxygen tent was given. From left are Miss Mary E. O'Neil, R.N., public health nurse who demonstrated the instrument; Mrs. William McNamee, county health equipment committee chairman; Miss Mary Keresman, secretary of the Ulster County Committee; Miss Gertrude H. Bevier, treasurer; and Mrs. Peter A. Carey, chairman of the county auxiliary. (Freeman Photo)

Author Arrested

New York, Feb. 26 (AP)—A charge of assault and robbery was lodged yesterday against Daniel Francis Ahearn, 45-year-old writer, who identified himself as author of the book, "How to Commit a Murder and Get Away With It." Miss Betty Berman, a New York resident department store buyer, was the complainant. She said she was beaten over the head in her midtown hotel apartment and robbed of $200 in cash and $1,000 worth of jewelry last July 4. She said she spent 27 days in a hospital after the beating. Police said she now is in Miami and identified Ahearn from photographs.

Mustard Cocktail

A mustard cocktail sauce may be served with seafood as a change from the usual sauce made with catchup or chili sauce. To make it, combine ¼ cup prepared mustard with ½ cup heavy cream, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and a dash of salt.

Presentation Made In Port Ewen at County Meeting

At the regular meeting of the County American Legion Auxiliary held at Port Ewen Mrs. William McNamee acting as liaison chairman between the auxiliary and nursing committees introduced Mrs. Mary O'Neil, public health nurse for the town of Esopus, who demonstrated the oxygen tent which the auxiliary presented to the county nursing committees.

To date seven beds have been donated by the auxiliary and placed in various towns throughout the county where the health department feels their need. The auxiliary voted to purchase two sterilizers, one of these to be sent to the town of Saugerties while the other will be placed in the health department office to be used where it is most needed in the county.

The county organization of the American Legion Auxiliary for the past two years has sponsored a magazine subscription campaign by the Crowell Collier Publishing Company. The profit realized from this campaign is spent by the auxiliary on health equipment for Ulster county. This is part of the community service program of the auxiliary.

Rehabilitation Chairman Mrs. Julia Cox reported 1000 cards were sent to her for the card shower, these to be sent to Castle Point for the use of the patients, free of charge.

The membership chairman reported one new unit with 26 members at Marlborough. Some of the units have reached their quota and will receive a citation. It was stressed that all units conduct an intensive drive so as to have their membership paid not later than March 31. Members were urged to continue the collection of coupons, the revenue from which helps to maintain the Women's Infirmary at Tupper Lake. Coupons from Borden Milk, LaRosa, Kirkman and Octagon products are valuable. Department Vice President Mrs. Stanley J. Matthews stated that Ulster county would send four girls to Girls State which will be held again this summer at Skidmore College. They receive instruction in good government and citizenship as well as a week of college life.

Tasty French Toast

French toast is a delicious way to use up stale bread. Two slices of the toast may be sandwiched with raspberry or strawberry jam, cut into attractive strips and given a light dusting of powdered sugar.

Peeled Beets

Beets are delicious when they are peeled, shredded and cooked in a covered saucepan in just enough water to prevent scorching; they may be dressed with butter, salt and pepper just before serving.

RED LETTER BARGAIN!

AW!—

Cut Out The Squawking

Last night on the Broadway Bus two women were talking.....but loud! Sure, you guessed it.....they were talking about the high cost of everything. One lady quoted a price she had paid for a certain article.....the other lady replied that she had bought the same thing at a different store for a little less. That set me to thinking as to how many of us really try to do anything about it all anyway. How many shop from store to store and compare prices and quality. Just as an illustration, a man came in our store one day last week about closing time to look at sweaters. He bought the sweater, and as he turned to leave he noticed a rack of BLUE MELTON JACKETS at a price of $3.98..... He hit the ceiling.....A few minutes before he had bought the same type jacket, same make, 100% wool for $6.00 in another store. We ask you—Can he blame anyone but himself? We advertised the jacket in the paper the week before.

Saturday I was in a drug store. I saw a man pay 69c for a big jar of FITCH'S SHAVING CREAM.....we sell the same thing FOR 29c. We bought around 700 pairs of BEDROOM SLIPPERS from one of Kingston's finest shoe stores.....the prices are still on most of the boxes..... plenty at $4.95, some at $3.95 and $2.97. He told me he sold hundreds of pairs at these prices.....Our highest price has been $1.69. We still have some left so we are going to CLOSE THEM OUT AT $1.19 for women's and men's AND 69c for Children's. We have TEK TOOTH BRUSHES that we sell for 19c.....price them any place—you'll find we sell them at least a dime less.

Of course we have every kind of men's clothing, jackets, pants, shirts, underwear, sox, etc.....Forgot to mention OVERALL JACKETS—nearly all makes FOR $1.59. Shop around, find out for yourself, we save you over a dollar on a jacket.

EAT WELL for Less

Try a Plateful of Nourishment

Men like an attractively served vegetable plate.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

A variety of plentiful vegetables assembled into "a vegetable dinner" can solve the meatless meat problem. Arrange them attractively, contrasting color and consistency. Using bright and dark colors, such as greens, yellows, red, brown and white, and fibrous vegetables and more tender ones. Cook them all freshly and serve with a sauce.

These vegetable dinners are protein rich, remember, and have lots of nutrition and taste appeal.

Parsley Turnips
(3-6 servings)

One bunch white turnips, ¼ cup fortified margarine, 2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley.

Remove tops from turnips; scrub; pare and cut in cubes. Cook in boiling salted water 20-35 minutes or until tender. Drain. Melt margarine, add parsley and pour over diced turnips.

Broccoli With Easy Hollandaise
(3-6 servings)

One large bunch broccoli, ¾ cup real mayonnaise, 1/3 cup milk, dash of salt and pepper, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, dash grated lemon rind.

Remove tough outer leaves and ends of stalks of broccoli. Let stand in cold water 15-20 minutes. Rinse thoroughly in cold running water. Peel and split stalks. Cook in boiling salted water 15-20 minutes or until tender. Drain. Combine mayonnaise, milk and season with salt and pepper. Cook over low heat until thickened. Add lemon juice and rind and serve over cooked broccoli.

Sliced Carrots With Mushrooms
(3-6 servings)

Six to eight large carrots, ¼ cup fortified margarine, ½ cup canned button mushrooms.

Scrape carrots and slice the long way. Cook in boiling salted water until tender. Melt margarine, add mushrooms and heat thoroughly. Serve over carrots.

TOMORROW'S MENU

Hoarded Material

Tokyo, Feb. 26 (AP)—Kyodo News Agency reported today that an official of a Nagoya industrial plant was arrested after $100,000,000 worth of hoarded materials were found at the plant. The firm was formerly the Nakajima Aircraft Company, Kyodo said, and its hoarded supplies were "ten times as much as were reported" to the government.

School Districts Will Get 'Relief' From Hardships

Bills Will Be Introduced to Assist 21 Cities Having Unusual Hardships

Albany, N. Y., Feeb. 26 (AP)—The Dewey administration today promised certain school districts "relief" from unusual "hardship situations" in the distribution of state aid.

Senate Majority Leader Benjamin F. Feinberg and Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck said bills would be introduced to:

1.—Permit 21 cities, which receive aid on a "deferred payment" basis, to apply for advances of money payable in 1949.

2.—Allow districts in which the school population has risen rapidly to have their aid computed on the basis of average daily attendance for one year instead of three.

The 21 cities will be given the privilege of seeking advance payments because they will not receive "in actual cash the full benefit of the new state aid program" until 1949. The program becomes effective July 1.

Owing to this delay in actual payments and the fact emergency aid begun last year will cease July 1, "some of these cities will find that their revenues will be deficient," the legislative chiefs said.

Under pending legislation the cities may apply to the education commissioner for advance payments which will be deducted from their aid payable next April.

Cities Are Named

The cities: Albany, Amsterdam, Beacon, Binghamton, Cohoes, Cortland, Elmira, Glen Cove, New Rochelle, Ogdensburg, Oneida, Plattsburgh, Poughkeepsie, Rome, Schenectady, Syracuse, Troy, Tonawanda, Utica, White Plains and Yonkers.

The other measure was designed to provide "substantially" more state aid for districts in which new housing projects have brought sudden increases in pupil attendance. Several districts in Nassau and Suffolk counties and others covered by the Mattydale project near Syracuse would be affected.

State aid is computed on the basis of average daily attendance for the previous three years and a district's assessed real property value. These districts would receive more state money if aid were computed on the attendance average for one year only, when it was high.

The proposed one-year plan will be effective for the school year beginning July 1 and may be continued another year after that.

Feinberg and Heck noted that attendance in some suburban districts had increased "several-fold" because of housing projects and added:

"To require in such school districts the use of the three-year average would be productive of chaotic conditions."

The proposed legislation, they said, would "take care of only a few situations where the conditions are extraordinary . . . but will remove grave potential harm to the children in those districts."

Both measures were suggested by Governor Dewey's Special Committee on Education, which recommended the new formula for apportioning state aid recently adopted by the Legislature.

West Coast Brownout

San Francisco, Feb. 26 (AP)—Northern California began its first peacetime electric power brownout today. A record drouth cut the state's vital hydro-electric water supplies. Reductions ranging from 10 per cent in agriculture, business and industry to 50 per cent in night sports lighting went into effect last midnight by order of the State Public Utilities Commission. Water storage is only 46.1 per cent of normal.

Korean Riots Reported

Seoul, Feb. 26 (AP)—The U. S. Army reported today five or six Korean civilians and a policeman were killed in a renewal of Communist-inspired agitation against the United Nations. Thirteen Koreans were injured seriously. Saboteurs also destroyed a bridge, cut telephone wires and placed ties across railroad tracks.

The World Today

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

So democratic little Czechoslovakia has gone the way of all countries upon which Bolshevism has managed to obtain a firm grip.

Czechoslovakia's absorption is one of Moscow's greatest successes. As the London News Chronicle pointed out a few hours before the coup was achieved, if the Communists gained complete control in Czechoslovakia it would be their most important victory in Europe, because out of all their conquests the Czechs would be the first with an instinctive belief in western democratic freedom. Well, Bolshevism reigns in freedom-loving Prague—at least for the time being.

President Benes, right hand to the late Dr. Thomas Masaryk who was father of the republic, finally was compelled to capitulate to Communist demands and turn the government over to Red control. As he took this tragic step the presidential palace was surrounded by hundreds of soldiers and police, armed with machineguns and under control of the Communist Ministry of the Interior. In order to enforce their demands the Reds had threatened a general strike.

This was followed swiftly by the chilling news from the U. S. Army at Frankfurt, Germany, that a heavily armed Czech guard had sealed Czechoslovakia's western frontier.

Security police were in complete control.

No Czechoslovak citizen was permitted to leave his country under any circumstance.

What could be going on behind that iron curtain? We have a right to speculate on that because of the liquidations and other terrors experienced in Poland, Bulgaria, Hungary and elsewhere. It's fair to ask whether a "house cleaning" is projected in Czechoslovakia by the Bolshevists.

Of course the new government which has been thrust upon Benes by Communist Premier Klement Gottwald is composed chiefly of Bolshevists. Gottwald himself is one of the world's leading Communists. He was one of the ten ranking Reds who signed the declaration "dissolving" the Comintern—or general staff for world revolution—in 1943 to allay the hostility of the democratic world.

Gottwald now becomes one of the most important dictators of the day, for Czechoslovakia itself is vastly more important than its size would indicate. Lying as it does in the heart of central Europe it has great strategic value, both politically and militarily. It has large industrial development and it is rich in natural resources.

Apropos of this, French Foreign Minister Bidault said yesterday that his government is gravely concerned over the crisis in Czechoslovakia as a threat to peace, because of that country's location as a key point of Europe. No wonder Hitler was anxious to control Czechoslovakia as a stepping stone to conquest.

As things now stand Czechoslovakia is under a Red police government which will get its orders from Moscow.

It could be that this would strengthen Russia's hand in its declared intention of defeating the Marshall plan. However, the thing can cut two ways, for it may bring the countries of western Europe to a realization that they can't play with Bolshevism, and that their safety lies in unity among the democracies.

Forest fires destroyed enough timber in the United States from 1909 to 1938 to build 6,500,000 five-room houses.

Cruiser on Assignment

London, Feb. 26 (AP)—The admiralty announced today the British cruiser Sheffield has sailed from Colombia for British Honduras. An authoritative source said the ship was dispatched "because of possible incidents staged by irresponsible elements in neighboring Guatemala." The informant refused to elaborate.

Two Sergeants Say Flying B-17 Not Difficult Task

Pair Are Now Awaiting Next Move While 'Resting' in Army 'Clink'

Balboa, C. Z., Feb. 26 (AP)—Apparently it isn't very hard to fly a B-17.

Two American sergeants, accused of taking an unauthorized 1,700-mile joyride in a Flying Fortress across some of the roughest terrain in the world, said today they didn't have much trouble on their little jaunt, although neither had ever been at the controls before.

M/Sgt. Glen D. Woods of Muncie, Ind., and S/Sgt. Theodore S. Havens, Jr., of Washington, N. J., arrived at U. S. Caribbean Air Command Headquarters last night from Caracas, Venezuela, where military authorities said they landed the B-17 Monday after a flight across the Andes from Galapagos.

Both said they had observed pilots in flight—Woods in 17 missions over Europe, Havens with the airforce in New Guinea—and it looked pretty easy.

So, instead of servicing Galapagos' one plane for a possible mercy flight at daybreak Monday, the two sergeants said they set off for greener pastures.

Woods said he handled the controls the whole way—just did everything he had seen pilots do.

Up to 15,000 and 20,000 feet they took the bomber, headed for Waller Field on the island of Trinidad. Woods said he had planned to set down the plane and say: "Well, here we are." It didn't quite work out that way. With only 500 gallons of gasoline left, Woods sat down at Caracas.

Officers of the Caribbean command said they were astounded that two untrained men could fly the four-engined plane over the Andes, but it didn't seem hard to Woods and Haven. Woods said he even made most of the flight on instruments because of thick weather. He knew how to read a radio compass, he said, but the automatic pilot wouldn't work so the whole trip was flown manually. They made no attempt to establish radio contact with the ground.

Woods said he had a little trouble getting the big plane to land properly. He had to try four times before he got the airspeed down to a safe margin. Then he made good landing, he said.

They were taken into custody upon landing because they didn't have the necessary clearance documents. Venezuelan officials got in touch with the U. S. attache in Caracas. Last night Woods and Haven arrived here and took up residence in the guardhouse.

Maj. Gen. Willis Hale, commanding general of the Caribbean Air Command, will have the next say about what happens to them.

They can be charged with misappropriating army property, an offense which carries a sentence of up to five years in prison.

But apparently they weren't greatly worried. Said Woods:

"This was the most fun I've had since the war!"

Dairy Sues A.F.L. Union

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 26 (AP)—The Norman Dairy, Inc., of New Canaan, sued the A.F.L. Teamsters' Union for $100,000 here yesterday, claiming a 1946 strike was a "conspiracy to injure and destroy" its business. The suit, filed in Superior Court, contended that the defendants had beaten officers and employes of the company, had destroyed delivery trucks and dairy products and had "threatened and intimidated" customers and suppliers. The company contended the strike was "illegal" and in violation of a contract. The dairy was closed down for a considerable time and suffered a "substantial loss of business," it was alleged.

Many Czechs Ask Chance to Fight Reds in Homeland

Neuhausen, Germany, Feb. 26 (AP)—At least 10 Czechs are known to have slipped through their border patrols near this frontier town this week, reaching the U. S. zone of Germany under cover of darkness.

The only traffic across the heavily-guarded Czechoslovak frontier since the Prague political crisis developed has been night and by stealth. All official crossing points are closed and guarded by armed, uniformed men.

The barriers have not been lifted either at Neuhausen or at nearby Wildenau to let any traveler through in either direction since 11:30 a. m. Tuesday. Since last Sunday, issuance of Czechoslovak entry visas for tourists and news reporters has been suspended. No Czechoslovak could leave his country for any reason. Foreigners needed special permits to get out.

The 10 Czechoslovaks who slipped over the border were said by military government officials to have found temporary haven in a displaced persons camp.

German police said three who who crossed illegally to the south of Neuhausen were turned over to U. S. Intelligence officers for questioning. None were known to be of political prominence.

A U. S. officer said there has been a big increase in the last month in the number of young Czechoslovak men crossing secretly into the American zone and offering themselves for service in any military unit in which they might get a chance to fight Communists in their own land. This officer said between 75 and 100 men arrived here last month and were turned over to the U. S. army.

"I don't know what was done with them," the officer said.

Taylor Says Party Will Win Election

New York, Feb. 26 (AP)—Sen. Glen H. Taylor of Idaho, candidate for vice president, says "if I were convinced that all a third party could do would be to elect a Republican, I would never have joined the movement."

Taylor made the statement at a news conference yesterday in reply to a question whether he believes the campaign of White House aspirant Henry A. Wallace and himself might result in the election of a G.O.P. president.

He predicted the third party will be on the ballot in all but two of three states in November, and will carry "enough to win."

Chances that the third party group would rejoin the Democratic party are "too remote to be discussed," Taylor said.

"I would like to see the Democratic party disintegrate so that we could have a real alignment of liberals and conservatives in this country," said Taylor, who was elected to the Senate as a Democrat.

Taylor said "the necessity of having peace in the world" is the most important issue in the 1948 campaign.

The news conference was held at headquarters of the Wallace-for-President Committee was opened formally in a Park Avenue building.

Several hundred followers greeted Wallace and Taylor at the headquarters last night. The two candidates and their wives shook hands with the visitors.

Gethsemane Battle

Jerusalem, Feb. 26 (AP)—A fierce mortar battle between Jews and Arabs raged today near the Garden of Gethsemane outside Jerusalem, with Arabs reportedly firing from behind tombstones in a Jewish cemetery. British police said two Arabs were killed and four wounded severely. Arabs reported one Arab woman died and one child and seven men were hurt. The police said two houses were demolished. Police also told of a battle in the border area betwen Arab Jaffa and Jewish Tel Aviv. They said a Jewish mortar and grenade attack on an Arab bastion near Ramle killed three Arabs and wounded four others. Palestine violence has taken the lives of 1,421 persons since the United Nations voted November 29 to partition the Holy Land.

ROSENDALE

Rosendale, Feb. 25 —The final returns of the polio drive in Rosendale have been made and show a satisfactory result of $240.04 collected in schools, taverns and other places. Following are the results taken at schools: Creek Locks, $24.01; Rosendale Union School, $24.08; St. Peter's Rosendale, $33.60; Cottekill, $15; Maple Hill, $6.60; Whiteport, $17.50; Tillson, $26.31. The record of $25.96 for business places is held by Myers Garage.

A meeting sponsored by the County Farm Bureau was scheduled to be held Wednesday evening in the Grange hall. The purpose of the session was three-fold. Dr. Edgar Tucker, C. A. Loomis and other speakers were slated to give advice on saving labor in dairying, reducing mastitis in the herd and further improving milk.

Village election will be held Tuesday, March 16. The present village officers are Mayor W. J. Vaughan, Vincent Steeley and Fred Hilker, trustees. Mr. Hilker's term expires and he is not running for reelection. Any candidate wishing to seek this office must file application with the village clerk 10 days prior to the election date.

Miss Kitty White of Poughkeepsie spent the week-end at the home of her sister, Mrs. Anne Mottman.

The funeral of Daniel Dugan, former resident of Rosendale, was largely attended at St. Peter's Church last Wednesday. Mr. Dugan, a retired employe of Standard Oil Co., Bayonne, N. J., had been ill for sometime. He died in Kingston on Sunday.

A movie entitled, "Youth's Frontier," was presented by the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp., Monday evening at the Rosendale Grange hall. The picture portrayed how a great service may be given to the people through small investors pooling their money to buy facilities for other people to work and live a normal happy life.

Joseph Hill, Jr., a student at Fordham University in New York, spent the last week-end at Dartmouth College visiting a former classmate, Merle Thorpe, also of Rosendale. Joe reported an enjoyable week-end as it was the time for the annual ice carnival.

Edward Scharmer, a student at Cardinal Farley High School spent the holiday week-end with his mother in Rosendale.

Mrs. John Regan is improving rapidly at the Benedictine Hospital following a recent operation.

Local boarding houses and hotels entertained many guests over the week-end. All enjoyed the beautiful weather with skiing, hiking and sleigh-riding offered by local slopes and trails.

Pat Fleming of Plattekill called on his brothers on Sunday afternoon. Later they visited John Fleming who is reported ill at the Benedictine Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry DuBois spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. DuBois' sister, Mrs. K. Joyce.

A dress rehearsal for the Grange variety show scheduled for March 3 and 4 was held Sunday afternoon.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, Feb. 23—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McCafferty motored up from New York and spent the week-end at their mountain road place.

Callers here Sunday included Herbert Butler who has a furniture repairing business on Broadway in Kingston.

Mrs. Anna Koch, who is residing with her sister, Mrs. Anthony Pastre, is able to walk out again following a serious illness.

Cpl. Carl H. Adels, Ashokan young man who has been in the army for the past two years, hopes soon to come home on furlough. Carl and his wife reside at a New Mexico post where he is a member of the orderly room staff.

Harbinger of Spring: George Thost's three big Toulouse geese plucking grass on the front lawn of the Thost store and tourist home Route 28.

February 23, 1910 — Hiram Kittle of Glenford yesterday attended the annual reunion of the 120th Infantry Regiment at the rooms of Pratt Post, G.A.R., in Kingston. Due to bad roads and weather conditions, only 37 of the Civil War comrades were present. Vetern Kittle and Charles Dumond, also of Hurley, were elected to the post's executive committee.

Abe Chason, a designing engineer with Western Electric in York city spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Emery Lukacs, and family.

Tongore Tess reads of the exceptional landlord who will rent only to couples having children. "Wonder," muses Tess "where he expects 'em to live the first year!"

Work on the new telephone project of placing a heavy cable on trunkline poles along Route 28 has progressed westerly from Glenford to Ashokan. The improvement, planned for last year, was delayed by a shortage of materials. It is understood that the aerial cable, designed to replace scores of exposed wires, will be continued all the way up the Esopus valley. One of the huge drums on which is coiled 757 feet and 3,850 pounds of cable has been delivered at the Ridge and state roads in this village.

Anthony Iapoce and friend, Michael Bizzario, of Long Island City were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Iapoce in Ashokan.

Having a birthday: C. Walter Lasher's natal anniversary falls on Thursday, Feb. 26. Walter was born in Kingston where he attended the Immanuel Lutheran School. He is married to the former M. Edna Emmich and has been employed as a salesman for Grunenwald's Bakery since May, 1947. The young man is a frequent caller in Shokan and is well known to storekeepers of the reservoir country.

Strange but true: Many a little hardy spring plant blooms first, not in late March or early April as many persons are apt to think, but rather in January—even such a January as the late, but not lamented, one. That same thick blanket of snow which has kept the ground soft and warm all winter, also has been sheltering, beneath an overarching crust of ice and snow, the sprightly "ladies' delights" and sundry other fragile plants, whose autumn grown buds had remained peacefully secure and effectually insulated from those oft-recurring zero temperatures. It is through such miracles as this that Mother Nature fosters belief in a hereafter, and causes hope to spring "eternal in the human breast."

Shokan, Feb. 25—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkins spent last week-end in New York, their former home.

Ex-G.I. Wolfgang Adels is employed at the new Wendt & Economos garage on Route 28. The garage, which is modernly equipped, has been doing a good business this winter.

Norman Nortf. and friend, Miss Florence Greiner of New York, were recent guests at the home of Norman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Justus North.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haver and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Coletti made a business trip to New York Friday and also took in the Sportsmen's Show at Grand Central Palace.

Hansine Lydman, widow of Jacob Lydman, who died Wednesday, February 18, in Brooklyn, had a number of friends in the reservoir country where she had come each summer for many years. Mrs. Lydman and her late husband operated a successful summer boarding business in the Acorn Hill section of Olive. She was a sister of the late Mrs. Thomas Matland of Shokan.

February 25, 1910: Olive residents who have secured their Ashokan awards and now have the wherewithal for investing in one of the newfangled autos, are interested in a bill introduced at Albany by Senator Wainwright, providing for a general operator's license and a "reasonable speed limit of 15 miles per hour in built-up sections and 20 miles on open country." Any one driving beyond these limits is to be regarded as "reckless." A registration of dealers and manufacturers also is planned by the Legislator... Mrs. Jane North and son, Abel, visited her brother, Emery Merrihew, and family last Friday.

Due to a typographical error in the dateline of a birthday announcement in a recent column, the natal anniversaries of Mrs. J. Constable, Tom Iapoce and Mrs. Henry Winchell were given as occurring on Friday of this week rather than correctly on last Friday, Sunday, February 22. Mrs. Constable was honored with a birthday dinner at her home in the village. The guests present upon this occasion included: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Quick, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barringer, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Constable, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Constable and ten grandchildren of Mrs. Constable.

Robert Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. William Tuceling, Jr., spent the week-end with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. William Tuceling, Sr.

Members of the Olive Legion Post and their families enjoyed a "First Anniversary Party" at Chalet Indien Tuesday evening of last week.

Men of Ulster: James Hasbrouck Bevier, one of Olive's best known citizens in pre-reservoir times, was born December 5, 1850, at High Falls, one of nine children of David and Deborah (Lockwood) Bevier. The elder Bevier, a native of Greene county, was in the cement business at High Falls. The family moved to the Shokan sector on the Brown's Station road in 1852. J. Hasbrouck spent his early years on the farm and continued in that occupation with the exception of three years when he operated the Shurter gristmill at Samsonville. His home in later years was along the Samsonville road. Mr. Bevier, or "Brooky" as he was known far and wide, was a talented vocalist and conducted singing schools in this area for a number of years. He was married February 27, 1883, to Drusilla Shurter, a school teacher and Sunday school superintendent of Samsonville and a descendant of John Shurter, an early settler in Ulster county.

Wall street shoppers, Friday: Mrs. Irving Cornish, Stone Ridge, formerly Mabel Everett of Olive Bridge; Jervis Bell, one time local resident; Louis Thiel, Route 28 philosopher; Lennie Mooney, a former Traver Hollow girl; Mrs. Herman Morris of the city colony at Brown's; Mrs. George Weeks of Stone Ridge, and Hazel Bell, a cousin of George Weeks, who is spending the winter in Kingston.

More Cars for Oil

New York, Feb. 26 (AP) — The East Coast Petroleum Regional Advisory Committee announced yesterday that 350 more railroad tank cars have been obtained to transport fuel oil and kerosene to upstate New York communities. The extra cars probably will be enough to relieve the fuel shortage there, a committee spokesman said.

3,000 Bodies En Route

Saipan, Feb. 26 (AP) — Taps drifted over Saipan's beaches today as the Army Transport Walter W. Schwenk sailed for San Francisco with the flag-draped coffins of 3,000 American war dead. The bodies of Pacific war victims were disinterred from cemeteries of every major island and many small atolls—only a few years ago the scenes of invasions in which they participated.

Mother Opened the Door

Albuquerque, N. M., Feb. 26 (AP)—The notation on the police blotter said merely that the two teen-age boys had "thrown a pie at the front door of 510 South Tulane avenue." When the youth appeared yesterday before Judge W. T. Harris, however, it developed that Mrs. A. E. Buck, wife of an Albuquerque city commissioner, was standing in the doorway. The pie—cholocate cream—struck Mrs. Buck in the face. The two youthful defendants, who were given a year's probation, said the pie was aimed at Mrs. Buck's teen-age daughter. They said they were very sorry her mother opened the door just when she did.

Cheese in Salad

Roquefort cheese dressing, made by crumbling the cheese into a standard French dressing, gives tang to a green salad. It is equally good on a salad of cooked vegetables.

Posed as Man 45 Years

Cincinnati, Feb. 26 (AP)—Death unmasked the true identity of an aged Negro woman who posed as a man for 45 years, city officials said today. The death last night of "Charlie" Howard further disclosed the woman was married for a time to a Paris, Ky., woman. After police had been summoned to a west end home to investigate the death, a pension board physician reported he had learned "Charlie" was a woman when she applied for a pension last Monday. She had always dressed as a man and apparently had "completely fooled" her neighbors, he added.

Only a few more weeks to the March 15 deadline. Only a few more weeks to get your Income Tax return in shape and file it.

Are you sure you won't be paying too much? Perhaps you don't understand all there is to know about Income Taxes.

What is an exemption?

A fixed amount that is allowed for each taxpayer and the same amount for each of his dependents. The taxpayer is allowed $500 for himself, $500 for his wife if she doesn't earn anything during the year) and $500 for each of his dependents.

Dependent is any person who gets more than half his support from the taxpayer and is related to him as follows: Children or descendants, brother, sisters, parents, immediate in-laws, immediate aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews. Also, immediate step-relatives.

Legally adopted children are also considered dependents.

Save yourself unnecessary taxation—both mentally and on your pocketbook — by consulting our Reader Service tax booklet No. 206. Written by a tax expert who knows your problems and how to them. Tax hints for married, single people; business losses, debts, charity, inheritance.

Potsdam Symphony Orchestra, Men's Glee Club To Give Two Joint Concerts at Saugerties in March

The Potsdam Symphony Orchestra of the State Teachers College at Potsdam together with the Men's Glee Club will give two concerts at Saugerties High School, Friday, March 12. An afternoon concert at 2:15 o'clock will be given for the school students and an evening concert at 8 o'clock will be open to the public.

Traveling in two large buses accompanied by a truck carrying the instruments, the group of more than 90 singers and instrumentalists will leave Potsdam early Sunday, March 7, with its first appearance scheduled for Watertown at a concert sponsored by the Rotary Club. From there the group will proceed to Oswego for a concert at the State Teachers College and then to Rome, Boonville, Richfield Springs, Oneonta and Saugerties.

The orchestra is under the direction of Dr. Samuel W. Spurbeck of the college staff with Maurice Baritaud as guest conductor. Miss Jean Witherill of Potsdam, violinist, will be the soloist playing the Lalo "Symphonie Espagnole," with Mr. Baritaud conducting. A varied program of musical selections has been prepared.

In the past the Potsdam State Symphony has made numerous appearances throughout the state. In 1944 it played for the convocation of the Board of Regents in Albany and in recent years it has appeared at the benefit concerts sponsored by the Rotary Club of Watertown. Other appearances have been made in Ogdensburg, Plattsburg and communities throughout the state. Recently Sir Ernest MacMillan was guest conductor and the orchestra has had various guest soloists.

The present symphony orchestra was founded by the late Franklin H. Bishop, who joined the staff of the Crane Institute of Music then under the direction of Miss Julia Crane, founder, in 1881. The Crane Institute of Music was the first school in the United States to train music supervisors in connection with a teacher training institution. Since the founding of the school, many students have been graduated. It has been a department of Potsdam State Teachers College since 1926.

Easter Monday Ball Will Have New Lighting Effect According to Auxiliary Committee

In cooperation with the Theatrical Local 637 of Kingston, a highlight of the Easter Monday Ball will be the unique lighting effect. The presentation of this feature is the result of long planning on the part of the members of the union and is based upon a different idea than last year's April Showers Ball. This colorful feature will depict falling roses and has been highly praised by those who have seen it. At each corner of the stage will be a huge vase of roses which will be changing colors. A special curtain will be erected at the center of which will be displayed the emblem of the Auxiliary.

The Easter Monday Ball, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Benedictine Hospital, will be held at the municipal auditorium March 29. Mrs. George F. Einterz and Mrs. Charles Davis are co-chairmen.

Mrs. William Bush and Mrs. Henry Bruck, chairmen of the ticket committee, have announced that patron tickets have been mailed and ask all patrons to make their returns at their earliest convenience. Jacques Roth and his WOR orchestra have been engaged and an excellent program of high class acts is being arranged by the committee to please all who enjoy good entertainment.

Camp Wendy Reunion At M.J.M. School Day Before Easter

The Camp Wendy Girl Scout Reunion will be held March 27 from 12 to 4 p. m. at the M.J.M. School in Kingston. Some 272 members of the 1947 season who were looking forward so eagerly to the event during the Christmas vacation will now be looking forward to Easter with the same plans in mind. The 1947 blizzard made necessary cancellation of the reunion as had been planned, but the program will remain the same and each Girl Scout camper is invited to be there and to bring with her a Girl Scout friend if she so desires. Everyone attending will bring a "horsebag lunch" and soda will be served. The Junior Camp Committee responsible for the planning of the program for the earlier date will continue as hostesses for the Easter reunion.

From the county 190 girls were in attendance at camp last year, the remainder coming from New York, New Jersey and Florida. A large percentage of Camp Wendy counsellors will return for the coming year and many are expected to be present for the reunion.

For the benefit of those who are not local residents, the Myron J. Michael School is situated at the rear of the Kingston High School and has its entrance on Andrew street. The program will start promptly at noon.

Jewish Center Group To Attend Conference

DR. SALO W. BARON

Kingston Jewish Community Center will have representatives at the Mid-Hudson Valley Conference on the Janowsky Survey Sunday at 12 noon and Dr. Salo W. Baron will be the guest speaker. His subject will be the background, significance and implication of the Jewish Welfare Board survey for the local centers.

The Janowsky Survey was the result of an extensive study made throughout the United States to analyze the growth and development of the Jewish Center movement, its contribution to the development of the Jewish and American community life, and the direction it should take from now on.

Poughkeepsie, Peekskill, Beacon, Newburgh and Kingston will take part in this conference. Similar conferences are taking place throughout the United States and on May 8 at the annual meeting of the Jewish Welfare Board in Chicago, the recommendations of these local conferences will form the basis of the future programs and policies of the Jewish Center movement.

The speaker, Dr. Baron, is professor of Jewish history, literature and institutions at Columbia University. He was educated in Vienna where he received an extensive rabbinical as well as secular training acquiring the degrees of Ph.D., Doctor of Political Science, Doctor of Jurisprudence and rabbinical degree. He has served as a member of the governing council and permanent minorities commission of the International Federation of the League of Nations Unions; lecturer and professor at Jewish Institute of Religion; lecturer of history at Graduate School for Jewish Social Work in New York.

He is a fellow of the American Academy for Jewish Research; Rauschenbusch Lecturer at Rochester-Colgate Divinity School, president of Conference on Jewish relations; president of academic committee for Hebrew University, chairman, commission on European Jewish Cultural Reconstruction; chairman of commission on survey of the National Jewish Welfare Board. MORE ABOUT EATING CHICKEN AND CHOPS

To make it clearer to a few questioning readers, let me explain that at a properly set table, it is not permissible to pick up either chicken or chops in the fingers, because good table manners do not permit greasing of fingers—let alone face. There is also no excuse for having to pick up either of these in the fingers if you have learned to eat dexterously with a knife and fork. At all picnics, however, or wherever the picnic atmosphere prevails, eating with the fingers is, of course, permissible.

Awkward Situation of Unannounced Guests

Dear Mrs. Post: What should I have done after accepting an invitation to spend the week-end at a house party, when out-of-state relatives of my husband's wired us that they were on their way to stay with us. They had a chance to come our way and since we are very fond of them, we very much wanted to see them.

Answer: This is an extremely unhappy situation, because either your relatives have to find your house empty or else your hostess must be kept in ignorance of your disappointment in having to keep your engagement with her. Whether you could call your hostess on the telephone and explain your situation is something that no one can answer but yourself. If they are people who have week-end parties time and again and your relatives rarely can come such a distance to see you, your hostess might be willing to release you.

On, the other hand, if you know you will be upsetting your hostess, there is nothing to do but leave a note addressed to your relatives attached to your door, asking them to see your neighbor, Mrs. Jones, who will explain. Leave the key to your house with Mrs. Jones and tell her that you also have left sufficient food in the icebox, will she tell them you will be back and that you hope they will make themselves at home until then.

Familiar everyday situations are explained to boys and girls of high school age in a leaflet by Mrs. Post which gives 30 questions and answers. Ask for E-11. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Lowell Club Hears Two Different Study Papers

Lowell Literary Club heard two papers at its meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Merrill C. Johnson, Pearl street.

The first paper entitled, "A Trip on the Pan-American Highway," written by Mrs. John M. Saxe, was read by Mrs. William McNamee. The material for the paper was a report of Sullivan Carol Richardson, writer, lecturer, and traveler. He was born in Mexico, educated in Northwestern University, and traveled throughout South America. The paper pointed out that 78 million dollars had already been spent and the road was still not completed. Peru has the best roads with about 1,600 miles of paved highway. The road was in bad condition through the desert and no one has driven a car through to the Panama Canal. It was explained that there were no sign posts in many areas and that army engineers had met many difficulties in maintaining a thoroughfare.

Mrs. C. V. Gunther gave the second paper on George and Marthan Washington. She described the fine character of Washington, his kindness and consideration toward children, and his deep religious feeling. Mrs. Gunther read several excerpts from his book of daily prayers "for use in war and peace," which he always carried with him.

Mrs. Gunther spoke of Martha Dandridge as the high spirited daughter of a wealthy plantation owner who married Col. Daniel Park Custis. Eight years later he died and left her one of the wealthiest widows in Virginia. One and a half years later she married Washington. In describing the wedding Mrs. Gunther pointed out that the bride set the custom in the country of wearing a wedding veil.

The marriage was described as a happy one. Washington's death was due to exposure in a storm on the plantation and Martha Washington grieving over his death died two and a half years later. Mrs. Gunther noted that the Washington fortune today would be worth about five million dollars. His will called for the liberation of his slaves and left the estate almost entirely to the two grandchildren of Mrs. Washington.

The next meeting of Lowell Club, March 9, will be at the home of Mrs. John B. Steketee, 198 Washington avenue, instead of with Mrs. C. Franklin Pierce as scheduled.

St. Valentine's Day Wedding Announced

Miss Jean Beusman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beusman, Jr., Wallkill, was married St. Valentine's Day to Harold Thompson Meredith, son of John M. Meredith, also of Fallkill, at the Shawangunk Reformed Church. The Rev. Milton Nauss, pastor of the Church of the Messiah, Princeton, N. J., officiated with Mrs. Herbert DuBois of Wallkill at the organ and Mrs. Harry Kelso of Walden, soloist.

The bride wore a white satin gown with fingertip veil and carried white gardenias and sweet peas. She was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. Eleanor Nauss of Princeton as matron of honor wore a violet gown and bonnet. Miss Gloria Hoffman of Brooklyn, cousin of the bride, and Miss Dorothy Meredith, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids wore light green gowns and bonnets. All carried pink and white carnations.

William Craft of Orangeburg was best man. Ushers were brothers of the bridegroom, Frederick and Todd Meredith.

After a reception at the 1776 Colonial Inn, Dwaarkill, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith left for a two week trip to Florida. They will reside in Wallkill where Mr. Meredith is a dairy farmer.

Kingston on Blacklist of O.B.--- Bonura; Class B Hopes End

Varipapa Will Appear Here April 20 During YMCA Tenpin Banquet

One of the greatest bowling attractions to be staged in Kingston during the 1947-48 season is slated for the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday, April 20, when Andy Varipapa of New York, national match game champion, will attend as guest at the banquet of the combined Mercantile and Church Federation Leagues and will later top off his visit here with an exhibition of his tenpin skill on the Y alleys.

Lou Schafer, physical director at the Y who is working with Jim Roe, president of the Mercantile loop, on full arrangements for the affair, made this announcement today and at the same time urged all members of both loops to secure their tickets immediately as seating arrangements will be limited.

"Naturally," Lou said, "we'd like to throw the affair open to the public, but due to the limited seating capacity, we must take care of the loop bowlers first. Then if there are any tickets still available, they'll be sold to the public."

Regarded as the greatest trick shot artist of all time, Varipapa, who hails from Hempstead, L. I., also is known as America's No. 1 Kegler.

He climaxed his sensational career last December by winning the national match game championship for the second straight time by defeating the cream of the country's bowlers in the annual All-Star competition in Chicago when he averaged a brilliant 210.8 for the 64 game finals.

Tops in Classic

The Hempstead, L. I., ace backs up his Chicago victory by the fact that he leads the entire field of All Star trundlers for the seven years that the classic has been held with a tremendous average of 201.650.

Adding to the impressive record is the high ranking finish in All Star competition that Andy has scored over the six years. He finished in consecutive order 12th, 3rd, 14th, 10th, third, first and first again, a record unequalled by any other bowler.

Besides his tremendous bowling ability Varipapa also is widely known for his friendly helpful hints to bowlers in all cities he has visited. He readily admits that he achieved top billing in bowling only after years of study and serious application which gives him an A to Z knowledge of the sport.

As a result, he is a fine teacher as well as a fine bowler and more often than not he can pick out a bowler's fault at first sight. Varipapa will undoubtedly take out some time during his April 20 engagement at the Y in order to give bowlers some handy hints.

Leads A.B.C. Field

Back to the records again finds that the Hempstead tenpin star also leads the American Bowling Congress in the matter of ten-year average marks with his 204.65. He has averaged 204 or better in six of the last seven tournaments.

Although the full program for the combined banquet has not yet been released, a prominent speaker is expected to attend. Full details will be announced.

Liberty and Port Score Loop Wins

Both Liberty and Port Jervis kept close on the heels of the unbeaten Kingston High School basketball team this week by scoring 59 to 43 and 43 to 41 victories over Middletown and Monticello respectively.

With all teams idle now until Friday night, the Maroons pace the second round standings with an unblemished record of four wins. Both the Redskins and Red and Black Raiders are lodged in a second place tie with three triumphs against one setback.

Port Here Tuesday

One of the two remaining games at the auditorium boards includes Port against Kingston next Tuesday, March 2. Monticello appears here Friday night.

Allie Hasbrouck sparked Liberty to its win over the Middies by bucketing 19 markers. John Gregory followed with 14 while Al Benjamin and Charlie Hollack accounted for 11 each. Glenn Cook starred for the losers with 17.

With only 20 seconds remaining in the overtime period Bob Furman tossed in a one-hander from the side to give Port Jervis the 43-41 decision over Monticello. Monticello forced the game into the extra period when Norm Culligan fired a set shot with only eight seconds left on the clock to make the score 34-all.

Fallsburg Triumphs

The onrushing Fallsburg Comets again showed plenty of strength in coming from behind to score a 44 to 36 win over the hapless Newburgh Free Academy squad. The win gave Fallsburg a 2-3 record for the second half.

Newburgh led at the third quarter by 31-30 but the final 65 seconds of the contest found Fallsburg getting tougher by the second. Bill Kopatz led the winner with 20 markers. Ron Shapiro tossed in 12 for the N.F.A. five.

The standings:

	W	L	Pct.
Kingston	4	0	1.000
Liberty	3	1	.750
Port Jervis	3	1	.750
Monticello	2	2	.500
Fallsburg	2	3	.400
Newburgh	1	4	.200
Middletown	0	4	.000

Cage Title Will Be Decided March 23, Says Tourney Head

Chicago, Feb. 26 (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association's basketball championship will be decided March 23 in New York after completion of the eastern and western playoffs, Arthur (Dutch) Lonborg, chairman of the N.C.A.A. tournament committee, announced today.

Lonborg, Northwestern University coach, said the western playoffs will be held March 19-20 in the Municipal Auditorium, Kansas City, Mo. The eastern playoffs will be staged in New York's Madison Square Garden on March 18-20.

The winner and runnerups of the N.C.A.A. tournament will move into the final Olympic basketball tryouts at New York, which begin March 27.

Golfers Make Neat Scores Yesterday At St. Petersburg

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 26 (AP)—The $10,000 St. Petersburg 72-hole open golf tournament started off as a wide open affair today.

Of the 165 entries, including the big names of golf, no one competitor was considered head and shoulders above the crowd.

Several of the better known golfers turned in some neat scores yesterday on the par 72 Lakewood course. Bobby Locke, the South African shooter, had a 69 together with Eric Monti of Santa Monica, Calif.

The biggest event of yesterday's pre-tourney, however, was the shooting by Skip Alexander, young Durham, N. C., pro.

Alexander, who shot 66, set a new P.G.A. record on the course when he used 18 putts on an 18-hole round. George Schneiter, P.G.A. tournament champion, said it set a new world record for low putts.

The former Duke University golf captain three-putted one green, but chipped into the cup on two other holes. He had 15 one-putt greens.

Although not directly concerned with sports, the sudden demise of the J. Walter Beverwyck Scharp Small Business Enterprises, is of such tremendous personal impact that we are slightly stymied and all thumbs in the daily search for the lost chords of innocuous innuendo.

Joe, you see, was a small business man in the virginial sense of the word. He operated a small concession in The Freeman composing room (peanuts, popcorn) but not hot dogs. The early success of the Scharp Enterprises created quite a stir among the ink-stained tyros but soon the truth leaked out.

A combination of poor mathematics, acute shortage of negotiable tin and poor memories conspired to bring about the financial collapse of Joe's once thriving cartel. The Deacon suddenly realized that in spite of all the huffing and puffing the net returns were not seriously altering his income tax status. The decision to call it quits followed quickly.

Joe's sudden departure from the small business ranks comes as a great shock to us. Some of Mulligan Mike's best lines were conceived shortly after munching Scharp's choice merchandise. No other outfit can make that statement. Mike is sorry, too.

Poughkeepsie High was the one team we feared in Kingston's drive for an undefeated season. . . . The Blues can be tough on that ill-lighted, cramped hatbox gym but this apparently was a Maroon squad not to be denied. . . . The handwriting was on the wall when they whipped the Liberty giants on the mountain town court. . . . Kingston, a hotbed of amateur boxing for nearly two straight years, deserves the Eastern Olympic boxing trials in June. . . . We hope Ben Becker is able to wade through whatever politics might jeopardize Kingston's chances. . . . Howard "President" Spaulding laments the dearth of bowling news in a column obviously designed to record the deathless heroics of the tenpin titans. . . . This applies to men both under and over 36 years. . . . Other outdoor sports followed in this order: baseball, golf, hunting, swimming, tennis. . . . Second to card-playing, the indoor preference was bowling. . . . Checkers and chess hold greater favor with men under 36 than over this age bracket. . . . Cards? . . . • Splits and Misses:

Ed Coughlin, who is more closely identified with baseball and basketball, recently sent along an article that dealt with the early religious aspects of bowling. . . . If you have ever seen a grudge match in recent years, you realize, of course, the general approach to the sport has been altered, verbally and artistically.

The argument of whether bowling originated in Italy or Germany is one of long standing. . . . The American Bowling Congress leans to Italy but some historians insist the game started in Germany. . . . In any event, back in the days when Germany was occupied by only two powers, instead of four, the Vandals and the Ostrogoths, the game of bowling was supposed to have originated. It was about 300 A.D., just before those two occupying tribes were broken up into 25 different Germanic peoples, that clergymen first began to 'set them up in the cathedral cloisters."

In those days the game had a definite religious significance. Each pin represented a heathen. The priest handed a rough stone or wooden ball to a parishioner and told him to strike down the heathens. If he missed, or failed to knock down all the pins, the intimation was that he was guilty of sin—and promptly banished to the Booster League. What a world of sinners we have today!

More than a thousand years later, when Martin Luther wasn't posting notices on the doors of the Wittenberg church, he found time for bowling. Luther experimented with a number of pins and finally decided that nine could be arranged in order most appropriate for the game. The 10th pin followed many years later.

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: Let every basketball fan in town, man or boy, break down the doors to pay tribute to the gallant K.H.S. team on Tuesday, March 2, date of their last home appearance.

Ex-Major Leaguer Scores Lack Of Interest; Money Is Stressed

Kingston's dream of a Class B franchise in organized baseball for 1948 blew up last night in a cloud of little dollars that weren't there at the Stuyvesant Hotel.

The inevitable climax to weeks of intensive negotiations by Addison Jones followed swiftly on the heels of a startling pronouncement by Henry "Zeke" Bonura, former major league home run slugger that:

1. Kingston is on the blacklist of organized baseball.
2. Nobody will invest any money in a Kingston franchise until the town proves itself.
3. "I don't think you're really interested and at least not on what I have heard here tonight."
4. The town has a blackeye in organized baseball after that Dodger deal of 1947 and the big league teams will stay away in droves.
5. The Kingston municipal stadium is a semi-pro setup as a baseball layout. You got two strikes against you.

Bonura's amazing revelations stunned the crowd for a few minutes and wrote the death warrant for the lingering hopes of the local Class B proponents but actually the motivating reason for the sudden collapse of the meeting was the absence of a guarantee that Kingston could raise a kitty of at least $25,000 to start the season.

Before Bonura got up to lay the cards on the table like a master poker player, Addison Jones informed the group that the "outlook is very doubtful" after he had spoken to Bonura.

Although the general understanding was that Bonura was interested in the managerial role here and would furnish the ball club, such was not the case and the ex-major leaguer didn't mince any words regarding his feelings on the proposition.

"I am not interested in the managerial job here and I would not invest any money in the Kingston setup, "Bonura said. He asserted he was here as a representative of the National Association of Minor Leagues and would assist in setting up a franchise here. Beyond that he made no promises.

Earlier in the meeting, Bill Lohrman of New Paltz, the former Giant hurler, had reiterated his decision that he would not manage the Kingston club if it did not have a major league tieup.

Chairman Jones pointed out at the start of the meeting that this was a do-or-die session and a decision had to be reached. The Colonial League had extended the option deadline to noon today (Thursday).

Mauro Lists Items

"Gabe" Mauro, business manager of the Poughkeepsie Chiefs, outlined the various mechanics of securing baseball players and setting up a Class B club.

Among other items, Mauro said it would be imperative to anticipate a budget of at least $50,000 for the season and he said at least 65,000 paid admissions would be needed. He predicted a turnout of at least 75,000 for Poughkeepsie this year.

The Class B salary limit for 17 players in a month would be $4,000, he said it would cost about $4,000 to put the club through spring training.

Mauro emphasized that control of the concession by the franchise and inside billboard advertising were extremely vital to the success of the operations. Without them, the club would operate under severe handicaps. Provisions should be made, too, for reserved seats. Under the present stadium seating arrangement, all seats are actually 65 cent seats and not 90-cent admissions as required by organized baseball for Class B leagues.

When Mauro and Bonura had spoken their little piece and Bonura had ruled himself out as manager the end of the trail was in sight.

Addison Jones who had worked so diligently trying to promote financial support for the proposed franchise ironically enough had already left the meeting room to drive Mauro and Bonura to Poughkeepsie to catch a train. Warren Smith was occupying the chairman's seat when a motion was made by Supreme Court Justice Harry E. Schirick that negotiations be terminated.

That's how the dream of Class B baseball for 1948 ended. The spirit and enthusiasm was there. The dollars were missing.

Jones Lauded For Efforts In Baseball

The man who worked the hardest and with the greatest sincerity in the Class B baseball negotiations for Kingston —Addison Jones—was given a vote of thanks by the group of baseball personalities assembled last night at the Stuyvesant.

The motion, offered by Supreme Court Justice Harry E. Schirick, said the group deeply appreciated Mr. Jones' untiring efforts and pointed out that failure of the drive certainly "was not his fault."

Bowling

The two bowling Eddies of the Y.M.C.A.—Schussler and Marks—dominated the Y Church National kegling Tuesday with identical triples of 517. Schussler's best game was 186 and Marks soloed for 180. A. Hutton missed the "500" bracket by a single pin—499—with 188 single and E. Kittle had 175-494.

Norton Whacks 592

Ed Norton added further to his Catholic Athletic Association laurels Wednesday night at the Central Rec drives as he fashioned a slick string of 246-169-177 for a rousing 592 triple to lead the loop in both single and triple departments for the night.

Norton's pin-busting failed to arouse St. Peter's of Kingston, however, as the Saints dropped the odd game to Immaculate Conception. The Saints won the opener 918-824 but lost the last two by 849-760 and 884-791.

Other good marks turned in throughout the circuit were Ed Schupp who fired 176-511, P. Sypen 198-533, P. Sypen 204-535, J. Mannello 192-508, J. Long 175-511, Jack Watzka 163-511, Bob Watzka 241-498, C. Hertica 200-545, T. Madden 209-578, Fred Ferraro 199-561, J. Nagy 216-548 and L. Yonnetti 181-548.

Pieper Tops Booster

George Pieper led the powerpacked Sam's Restaurant trundlers to a clean sweep over Perrie's Rest in the Booster League this week with a 560 series on scores of 137-188-235 with both the 560 and 235 counts taking high honors for the night.

Sam's riddled games of 791-858-957 for a neat 2606 series for another high of the night. Following Pieper were Bob "Giants" Tierney with 189-532, Sam Avnet 196-512, Ed Wyant 182-504 and genial Sam Moss 181-498.

Other 500s registered during the matches found Charlie Diers aiding The Freemans to three wins over Chez Emile by batting out 191-511, H. Harder posted 193-551, P. Senor 206-537, S. Markowitz 185-504, W. Sickler 190-503, F. Cirone 192-523, Ted Gile, Sr., 210-533.

Official Nod Will Be Given Tonight To Louis-Walcott

Camden, N. J., Feb. 26 (AP)—To the surprise of nobody, the return bout between heavyweight champion Joe Louis and Jersey Joe Walcott probably will be announced officially tonight.

The announcement that Walcott has agreed to the terms set down by the Twentieth Century Sporting Club is slated to be made at the presentation of the Police Gazette's "heavyweight championship belt" to Jersey Joe in a public ceremony at Convention Hall.

The Police Gazette considers that Jersey Joe whipped the champion in their first encounter last December and is reviving its custom of years ago in awarding a belt to the titleholder.

But when champion Joe and challenger Jersey Joe meet in the Yankee Stadium June 23 over the 15-round route it'll be Louis that'll get the titleholders's share of the purse.

Louis, now in England for a series of exhibition bouts, is due to collect 40 per cent of the purse, Walcott 20 per cent. Jersey Joe's advisors have been holding out for 30 percent cut of the movie rights. But the announcement tonight is likely to reveal that Walcott will receive much closer to 20 percent than 30 of the movie income.

Leonard's Death Is Reason for Asking Exams for Referees

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 26 (AP)—A bill has been introduced in the New York legislature to require boxing and wrestling referees to undergo physical examinations an hour before officiating.

Assembly Francis X. McGowan said yesterday his measure resulted from the death last year of Benny Leonard, stricken while refereeing a boxing match.

The New York Democrat said "enactment of such a bill will prevent, or at least substantially curtail, the likelihood of any further occurrences of that regrettable incident and will ultimately prove of immeasurable benefit and protection to all elements of the sports world."

Eyesight and hearing tests would be included in the examination.

Kerhonkson Trips Ellenville Twice

The Kerhonkson High School junior basketball teams scored a double victory Saturday night over the Ellenville Juniors.

The "B" teams staged a tight game with Kerhonkson eding out a 19 to 17 decision. The "A" groups also engaged in a close affair with Kerhonkson again winning by 20 to 15.

The double win put Kerhonkson even with Ellenville in the winter series with both schools holding four victories each in inter-school basketball competition.

What, No Automobile!

Zeke Bonura, the ambassador of good will of the minor leagues, revealed in a hurried huddle last night at the Stuyvesant that he was 'interested' in the Kingston managerial job on the following terms:

1. An annual salary of 'at least $6500.'
2. A working interest and share in the club's ownership.
3. A 50-50 split on 'net profits.'

Bonura apparently overlooked the important item of a shiny, new automobile, an accessory always identified with baseball generosity, but an alert wag in the audience remarked:

"It probably could be arranged at an "'Appreciation Night.'"

Oklahoma Mentor Mentioned as New Yale Grid Coach

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 26 (AP)—The latest candidate reported as having the "inside track" for the vacant football coaching job at Yale is Charles (Bud) Wilkinson, coach at Oklahoma University.

At Oklahoma City, Dr. George L. Cross, O. U. president, said last night:

"It is my understanding that Bud has been offered the job."

The Daily Oklahoman was more specific. It said an unindentified member of the Yale Alumni Board had told Wilkinson:

"If you want the job, it's yours, we will recommend you to the school and the recommendation will be accepted."

Edwin F. Blair, chairman of the Yale Graduate Football Committee, declined to confirm or deny that the Sooner coach had been offered the post left vacant by Howie Odell's departure for the University of Washington. Said Blair:

"All I can say is 'no comment.'"

Plans No Trip

The Daily Oklahoman said Wilkinson had been offered a five-year contract with "many concessions." The coach himself did not deny the report, but said he planned no trip east to confer with Yale officials.

The report that Wilkinson is now the favored candidate came shortly after Norman J. Daniels of Wesleyan became the third football coach to express himself as unwilling to take the Yale job.

The Wesleyan coach, tutor of two successive unbeaten-untied "Little Three champions," removed himself from the running with the crisp statement, "I have decided to remain at Wesleyan."

Daniels conferred with Yale authorities at considerable length over the week-end. There was never any official information that Daniels had been offered the post nor was there a denial that it had been offered him.

Many close to the Yale situation believe announcement of the new coach will come within a comparatively short time. They base their contention on the fact that spring practice is only about three weeks away and Yale must have its mentor by then if if hopes to start operations in full swing.

Goodall Tourney May 6

New York, Feb. 26 (AP)—The Goodall-Round-Robin Golf Tournament will be played at the Wykagyl Club, New Rochelle, N. Y., May 6 to 9 with proceeds going to the New Rochelle Hospital. Elmer Ward, president of the sponsoring Goodall Company, said the 16-man field would have a distinct international flavor with the possibility that Bobby Locke of South Africa, Fred Daly of Ireland, Henry Colton of England and Norman Von Nida of Australia might be in the field.

11 Starters Named In Flamingo for Hialeah Saturday

Miami, Fla., Feb. 26 (AP)—Prospects of seeing the 1948 Kentucky Derby winner in action in Hialeah Park's $50,000 Flamingo Saturday appeared excellent today.

The three top choices for the 19th running of Florida's three-year-old event—Calumet Farm's Citation, Belair stud's Hypnos and Walter P. Chrysler, Jr.'s Silverling—have been named for the Derby, together with Hart and Jacobson's Big Deal, Rarco Stable's Tight Squeeze, Sanford Stud Farm's Realtor, Mrs. S. S. Zell's Cheops, and Short Brook Farm's Pennant Day.

Citation, with Jockey Al Snider up, will be the odds-on choice in the Flamingo.

Side View of Truck Crash Today

10-Ton Truck . . .

the precise spot where the truck struck the building, somehow remained on the wall and was unbroken.

The movement of the floor tore loose a pipeless coal furnace in the basement and left it standing at an angle.

Unemployed at Present

Carter, a former employe of the Hiltebrant Dry Dock Company, is at present unemployed.

The truck received damage to its right front fender and windshield, and the right front of the trailer was stove in. The driver was apparently able to pull the truck around at the last minute so that it struck the house a glancing blow instead of hitting it head-on.

Patrolmen Walter Van Steenburgh and Charles Hoehing investigated. They reported that icy conditions of the road were responsible for the driver's losing control. The driver was not arrested.

Neighbors reported that the Board of Public Works sanded the road at 4 a. m. today, after the accident had occurred.

The owner of a local truck line who was present this morning estimated that the truck empty, would weigh about 10 tons. He said the trailer was the type known as a furniture van.

affidavit under the Taft-Hartley Labor Law," Sorrell said.

The husky union chief, a former prize fighter, said he is "still sore" from being "taken for a ride" at the height of the west coast strife last year.

"I don't know who they were," he said, "but three guys in police uniforms took me in a car, handcuffed me and tossed me out on the desert after beating me almost to death. They hit me so hard in the back of the head that it gave me two black eyes." He added:

"I'll have plenty to tell when I get my chance before the committee".

Chairman Kearns (R.-Pa.), agreed reluctantly to continue testimony on the Reds-in-Hollywood angle after Rep. Landis (R.-Ind), insisted on a showdown.

Kearns contended that the House Committee on Un-American Activities should go into any "Communist angle" and that the Labor Committee should stick to the labor side.

Chairman Hartley (R.-N.J.) of the full House Labor Committee ruled against Kearns. He also enlarged the subcommittee to five men.

Heretofore in the ten-day-old hearings Landis and Rep.

University Women See European Aid Essential for Peace

National officers of the American Association of University Women today issued a call to A.A.U.W. branches, of which the Kingston College Women's Club is one, to swing into action for support of the European Recovery Program as embodied in the Eaton Bill now before the House.

The Association's Committee on International Relations considers the European Recovery Program of crucial importance to world peace, and the Social Studies Committee rates it as having top priority from the domestic standpoint, since "world recovery is essential for the stability of our domestic economy."

In line with policies voted by the A.A.U.W. national convention last spring, the association has taken action to endorse European recovery legislation which would embody the following points:

That sufficient funds be granted for a genuine long-range program for reconstructions, not a mere relief program. The full 6.8 billion dollar initial appropriation asked by President Truman for the first 15 months regarded as essential.

That the administration be such as to permit prompt action and insure flexibility, in order that varying needs of the recipient countries, under changing conditions, may be met.

That the monetary aspects of the program would not impose United States domination on the economy of the recipient countries.

That the European Recovery Program, as it develops, operate as far as possible through the United Nations and its affiliated international agencies.

State Tax Help To Be Given Locally

Albany, Feb. 26—State income tax examiners will visit the county building in Kingston March 1 through March 6 and again from April 5 through April 15 to assist taxpayers in making out their state tax returns for 1947 which are due on or before April 15, it was announced today by George Klein, director of the State Income Tax Bureau.

The announcement said that Max Zuckerman and Jack Schwartzbaum would be the two examiners who will assist local taxpayers in making out reports.

Pointing out that no state income tax has been withheld from salaries or wages except in case of non-residents, Mr. Klein said that state tax returns must be filed by single persons who had net income and net capital gain of $1,000 or more in 1947, by married couples who had joint net income and net capital gain of $2,500 or more, and by anyone whose gross income was $5,000 or more.

He advised taxpayers that income tax reduction legislation is now pending and suggested that those who file state tax returns before the current legislation is enacted should compute the tax at old rates printed on the forms and pay 60 per cent of that amount.

"If legislation now pending is enacted, that will be your full tax," he added, "but if no reduction or a lesser reduction is enacted, your payment will be considered as an installment on your tax and you will then be billed for the remainder due."

Grimditch Charges Wife's Diary Shows Intimacy With Men

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 26 (AP)—Counsel for William Henry Grimditch, Jr., is expected to present defense testimony today in the divorce trial brought by Mrs. Gioia Gould Grimditch, 23, great granddaughter of financier Jay Gould.

Superior Court Judge J. Mercer Johnson late yesterday refused a motion to dismiss the case by Grimditch's attorney.

Spectators jammed the courtroom as Grimditch calmly read passages from his wife's diary and love letters in an effort to substantiate his charges of infidelity.

Grimditch, 24-year-old son of a prominent Philadelphia family, has countered the divorce action with a cross complaint in which it is contended Gioia was intimate with several men while he was overseas in 1946.

Grimditch testified that "incriminating evidence in letters and the diary" made him realize Gioia Barker Grimditch "was not a fit mother for my children."

He asks custody of the two children.

Grimditch read three letters to his wife from Blake Brophy, son of a Phoenix bank president. His counsel contended one letter contained lewd passages, but attorneys for Mrs. Grimditch asserted such a conclusion was a misinterpretation.

On questioning, Mrs. Grimditch admitted she was infatuated with Blake Brophy, and when asked further if she loved him she replied, "yes, I thought I did."

Unseen Except by Radar

A flock of geese, flying over England, were never seen by human eyes, yet an R.A.F. radar station kept them in the field for 99 minutes and knew exactly what speed they were traveling the entire time.

Greeks Adjourn

Athens, Feb. 26 (AP)—The Greek parliament voted today to adjourn until May 10. The vote was 147 to 73. The government proposed a parliamentary recess last week, on the ground members could serve their country better by being near their constituents on the eve of an offensive against the guerrillas. Minor party leaders opposed the recess. One opposition leader declared the government is "just trying to get rid of us."

Postwar governmental demands for petroleum products are several times greater than pre-war.

Peckhams Receive Call to Return From Parishioners

Official Report Is Given of Projects Covered During Year by Church

A unanimous invitation was extended to the Rev. and Mrs. William R. Peckham to return for another year to the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church at a substantial increase in salary during the fourth quarterly conference of the church held Monday evening.

The pastor and his wife, the official report said, have given 10 years of faithful service to the church.

Official Report

Following is the official report of the conference:

A brief meeting of the official board of Clinton Avenue Methodist Church was held Monday evening, February 23, at which time the budget for 1948 and 1949 was approved. At 7:30 p. m., the fourth quarterly conference convened. Dr. Burton F. Tarr, superintendent of the Kingston District, presided.

Harley A. Miner, in his report for the board of education, said in part—a survey of the membership of all departments of the church school had been made; the membership is now 100 per cent correct. Goal charts have been made and the Crusade Plan for the church school will be promoted through the year. Mr. Miner also reported that the canvas for the ministers reserve pension fund campaign is about completed.

The numerous organizations gave excellent reports of the past year's activities. Large amounts of money had been raised for the promotion of church work. In all the programs promoted the spiritual and social life of the church had not been neglected.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service has an active membership of 86. The Society has had a good year. Mrs. H. A. Miner, the newly-elected president, is looking forward to a continuance of the good work. Very soon the kitchen of Epworth Hall will be renovated and the new equipment will be installed.

The outstanding project of the year has been the installation of a new Ernest A. Skinner organ. March 21 is the date set for the dedication of the new chancel, new furniture; namely a pulpit and lectern, choir stalls, altar and altar set of solid brass, a carpet and chancel screens, a console and tubular chimes. These will be dedicated as memorials. The expense of this whole project has been met in full.

The spiritual life of the church has held precedence over all other activities. The pastor has received 46 new members into the church fellowship, 38 infants and 10 adults have been baptized. He has officiated at 56 funerals and 64 weddings. The pastor also conducted the week-day school of religious education throughout the school year. Fourteen members of the church have passed away during the year.

Some changes have been made in the official family. Hilton Matthews, Mrs. Marshall Winchell and Mrs. S. Morgan were elected stewards. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelder and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Palen were elected communion stewards.

The district superintendent was requested to state the feelings of the members of the quarterly conference and congregation to the bishop and his cabinet relative to the return of the Rev. and Mrs. Peckham for the 11th year.

Dr. Tarr congratulated the church on the splendid condition of all the church activities and urged a continuation of spiritual growth.

The conference closed with the benediction by the Rev. Mr. Peckham.

Kaiser-Frazer Cuts Force; Fewer Autos

Detroit, Feb. 26 (AP) — The Kaiser-Frazer Corp. announced today an "economy" cutback of operations, including elimination of the night shift at its Willow Run plant and the layoff of 3,200 workers.

The move will mean an "appreciable" lowering of the plant's auto production, now nearing an average of 1,000 units a day, according to a company spokesman.

Edgar F. Kaiser, vice president and general manager, said the cutback resulted from "an economy drive in the face of mounting costs that have forced several auto manufacturers recently to raise prices."

The new one-shift operations are scheduled to start March 5.

Water Is Ordered For William Street In Kerhonkson

Kerhonkson, Feb. 26—Henry R. Decker, local contractor, has been notified by the State of New York Public Service Commission that the Kerhonkson Water Company, Inc., has been ordered to extend its service along William street with certain conditions stipulated.

Decker applied to the commission after an extended fight to obtain water service for residents of the street that is part of a settlement he constructed in the village. His complaint brought the order with these stipulations:

1. That Kerhonkson Water Company, Inc., be and it hereby is required to lay on William street a six-inch water main connected with the existing main in Foordmore avenue and to construct thereon all services connections necessary to furnish all the houses on William street with water service.

2. That this order is conditional only and shall take effect only upon performance of either of the following conditions, at the option of the four new customers on William street not now supplied with water service:

(a) That said customers, or any of them, give satisfactory assurance to the company that such customers will pay the difference between the cost of normal construction and the cost of rock excavation for the main in William street;

(b) That said customers or any of them, will agree to pay an annual surcharge on such additional cost represented by rock excavation of 4½ per cent of said cost;

(c) That said customers or any of them shall at their own expense excavate any rock necessary for the laying of water mains on William street;

(d) For the purposes of the offer it is contemplated that excavation should be to a depth of at least 4½ feet and of sufficient width to permit laying and maintenance of pipe.

3. That Kerhonkson Water Company, Inc., be and it hereby is directed to complete the construction hereinabove described within six months of satisfactory performance of either of the above conditions by said customers, or any of them.

Cold Egg Nog

Egg nog is easily made by beating an egg with a teaspoon or two of sugar and a few drops of vanilla. About 1 cup of milk and a few grains of salt should then be added and the whole mixture beaten again. The egg nog should be served cold.
